Firemen Plan Concert Of Civil War Songs By Choirs As Feature Of Observance

The Gettysburg Fire Department committee for the observance of the 92nd anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and the Fourth of July will introduce a new feature this year, it was decided at a meeting of the General Committee and committee chairmen Tuesday evening at the engine house.

Raymond E. Menges, general chairman, presented the new program and after a brief discussion it was adopted and a committee will be appointed to make the arrangement.

Menges' program calls for a special concert Sunday night, July 3, at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial or on Memorial Field at the college. The program will be the singing of songs popular during the Civil War years by a number of choral groups and choirs. Such favorites as "Tenting Tonight On The Old Camp Ground," "Oh, Susanna" and others will highlight the concert. It was also suggested that the program be offered to several radio stations for broadcasting purposes.

3,500 Donation Books

Committee members were enthusiastic over the new program and ventured the prediction that it may "very likely attract thousands of listeners."

Chairman Menges announced that 3,500 donation books will soon be available for distribution and that each fireman will be asked to dispose of fifteen books. "Our goal

LEAGUE WOMEN HOLD BIRTHDAY PARTY TUESDAY

Approximately 100 members of the Woman's League of Gettysburg College attended the organization's annual Birthday Party Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the social rooms of Christ Lutheran Church with Mrs. Jean Charles, TKE Fraternity House mother, in charge of the program.

Twelve tables were set by Mrs. Charles, former interior decorator in Pittsburgh, to represent the months of the year.

A silver punch bowl surrounded with a wreath of pine and red and green bells portrayed January. February was represented by a table decorated with red mats, milk glass dishes, a bowl of lilies of the valley and Valentine motifs. Green shamrocks, green mats, green candles and crystal and a bowl of mint green carnations reflected St. Patrick's Day for March. April's theme was a basket of daffodils, yellow candles and small white ducks. A pale pink cloth covered the table for May and a shell filled with violets formed the centerpiece.

GETTYSBURG IS CLUB TOPIC FOR SECOND TIME

The Harrisburg Eclectic club continued Gettysburg as its discussion subject Monday night in Harrisburg when Edgar Z. Wallower, in charge of the January meeting, used the Battle of Gettysburg as his subject. In his presentation he eliminated much of the detail of the battle but portrayed his subject to reflect the thinking of the leaders of the two armies as a new and an interesting approach.

Members of the club were provided with large maps of the battlefield to enable them to follow the movement of the forces and to locate the areas and identify the terrain that influenced the the leaders on both sides.

Mr. Wallower conducted a forum following his presentation that lasted for more than one hour in which all attending participated.

Most Popular Topic

Monday's presentation followed that of the previous meeting in December when Major General E. J. Stackpole addressed the group on "Lee's Invasion of the North in June 1863."

It was stated at the conclusion of Monday evening's meeting that of all the subjects discussed by the Eclectic club, covering a broad range, the two meetings on the Gettysburg campaign ranked all others in interest and general participation.

Among those attending the meeting Monday evening were Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president emeritus of Gettysburg College, and Dr. Henry Edel, president of Dickinson College, both of whom are members of the Harrisburg organization.

FIRE SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY

The first session of the first Fire School held in Gettysburg since 1947 will be held next Monday night, Donald McSherry, chief of the Gettysburg Fire Department, said today. The class will be conducted from 7 until 10 o'clock.

The course was initially limited to 40 members of the Gettysburg department but McSherry said that Wadsworth will accept a few more if they express a desire to attend the school.

Each weekly session will be for three hours.

The course will include instruction in hose loading, ladder work, rescue work, extinguisher work, pump operations and other subjects.

The school is free to members. The local fire company will pay for the books.

To Close Off Springs Ave. For Coasting

Burgess William G. Weaver took steps this morning to make sure that youngsters of the community get full benefit of the first real snow of the winter by announcing that Springs Ave. will be closed after school this afternoon for sledding.

The hill, favorite spot for coasting, will be closed each day after school until about 9 p.m. each evening as long as the sledding lasts, Burgess Weaver said.

While Springs Ave. is being reserved for sledding, coasting on other streets cannot be permitted, the burgess said, because of the danger to traffic and to the sledders.

SCOUT OATH IS ILLUSTRATED AT CLUB MEETING

Atty. Eugene Hartman, chairman of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District, illustrated the Scout Oath and the ways in which it helps prepare a boy to be a useful adult at the weekly meeting of the Exchange Club Tuesday evening at Bankert's Restaurant. The meeting was in observance of Boy Scout Week.

Attorney Hartman recited the Scout Oath, and quoted poems and essays to explain the value of each phrase. "On my honor, I will do my best," he began, and then illustrated this portion by reciting a poem dealing with "the need for fortitude in a man, so that he can take the blows that life strikes."

On the words "To God" Hartman cited the example of Christ as a humble Man who achieved no success or fame in the usual worldly ways, but whose life has greatly affected the world. On "and my country" he read the national prize-winning eassay by Elizabeth Evans, in the "I Speak For Democracy" Contest.

When he reached the phrase of the Oath, "to help others," he quoted a poem which included the statement that it is "not what we dream, but the good we do. . . ." He spoke of the need to live life to the fullest when he came to the portion of the Oath about being "physically strong,

BIGLERVILLE'S NEW SCHOOL IS IN USE; TO NEED ANOTHER SOON

Biglerville's new elementary school, into which approximately 210 youngsters were moved Monday, was the location and the featured attraction of Tuesday evening's meeting of the Upper Adams Lions Club.

The Lions became the first organization to dine in the new cafeteria at the school and heard from Leslie V. Stock, supervising principal of the Upper Adams Joint School System that even more building will probably be needed to keep up with the rapidly expanding enrollment.

"With a new school here and a new school just about completed at Arendtsville, you may think we are overbuilding. We have an extra classroom here now, but that will be filled by next fall. We have had an extra classroom at Bendersville since it was built several years ago but that will be filled by fall. And the new elementary school at Arendtsville will also be filed with students by this fall.

Amazing Increases

"The way the student body increases is something amazing. Three weeks ago we opened the doors of school one morning to find 16 new youngsters starting in school. During January we gained 28 new students. Translated that means we added one classroom during the month.

"And if the children now in elementary school keep on into high school we will have 260 more in the high school and we are already are full there."

"Completion of the $204,000 elementary building at Biglerville is about four weeks behind schedule. We had hoped to get into it by January 1," Stock said. "Work on the eight-room school at Arendtsville, which is identical to this building, will be completed in about six weeks. Work on the structure here started about nine months ago and it was about six weeks later that workmen began construction of

Two GOP State Officials Defy Governor's Order To Resign; May Go To Court

By JOHN KOENIG JR

HARRISBURG (AP) — Two of six holdover Republican state officials directed by Gov. George M. Leader to resign by Saturday or be fired today questioned the validity of the governor's action.

"There is no doubt about the governor's right to fire us after he has successors confirmed by the Senate," said Chairman Raymond A. Cox of the state Securities Commission, but added:

"My commission reads 'to serve until a successor is qualified.'"

Cox said he believes that phrase is meant as a "caretaker provision," insuring that a man holding a job be carried over until an adequate choice of a replacement has been made.

Askd whether he believed he had a basis for court action, Cox replied: "Very definitely."

David R. Perry, Liquor Control Board member, questioned the same phrase and said he is seeking legal advice.

Would Lose Pension

"On the basis of advice received so far, I will not resign," he said.

To do so, said Perry, would mean losing a state pension after 20 years of state service. Perry formerly was secretary to Gov. James H. Duff and served some years ago as a representative from Blair County.

The ultimatum went to Cox, Perry and four others to make room for six appointments that Leader sent to the Senate two weeks ago.

Senate Republicans—10 of their 26 votes are needed by the Democrats for confirmation—have held that they will not agree to any ap-

FTC HEARINGS RE-OPEN HERE ON THURSDAY

No major evidence has been produced by the government, according to a qualified observer, which is of importance to the government charges. The issues have been largely confined to the point stressed by the FTC in reversing the dismissal of charges recommended by former Examiner Frank T. Hier.

Evidence on the whole, the observer said, seems to sustain the contentions of the defense counsel and opinions given today by major growers. Delmar Robinson and Fred T. Glaize indicated continuous bargaining with the processors with almost every deal a special case.

WINCHESTER, Va. (AP)—Hearings being conducted by the Federal Trade Commission on alleged price fixing by apple growers will be resumed tomorrow at Gettysburg, Pa.

Hearings in Gettysburg will be in the Post Office building.

Testimony was given by Brown as to the competition from other processors both as to purchase of raw product and the sale of finished canned goods. Robinson testified regarding the bargaining and business transactions with individual processors.

The ruling by F. T. Hier was reversed by the FTC on the legal ground that a prima facie case existed in bulletins and letters of the Appalachian Apple Service of Martinsburg, W. Va., a grower's organization. It is charged by the FTC that apple prices were fixed Aug. 26, 1950, at a grower-processor meeting at Martinsburg, W. Va.

SEWER SYSTEM IS CONSIDERED BY EAST BERLIN

The East Berlin borough council at its February meeting Tuesday evening took steps to advance the move in that town for the construction and installation of a sanitary sewer system and treatment plan.

Preliminary estimates indicate a cost of upwards of $100,000 and councilmen informally discussed a plan by which the improvement could be financed with 40-year, self-liquidating, revenue bonds. The system would serve about 340-350 dwelling units.

Next step in the undertaking will be a town-wide survey to be made by members of the town council to determine how residents of the community feel about proceding with the undertaking. Councilmen believe the townfolk are in favor of the proposed improvements.

Consider Street, Work

Council also received a report from Borough Engineer William E. Sees Jr., Harrisburg, on plans for curbing the main streets and for a street surfacing program in the town. These projects will be delayed temporarily until a decision is reached on the sanitary sewer system because of the street digging that could be involved.

The town already has its own water system.

Attending the meeting in addition to members of council were Mr. Sees and Attorney Charles W. Wolf, borough solicitor The members of the council are President Charles B. Wallace, C. A. Eisenhart, George Mummert, J. S. Kohler, Charles Fahs and S. B. Krall. Burgess A. D. Himes and Borough Secretary Harper I. Phillips also attended.

HISTORY OF ORPHANAGE IS TOPIC OF TALK

The history of the Hoffman Orphanage was reviewed and plans announced for the forthcoming construction of another cottage there by the Rev. Arthur Leming, superintendent of the orphanage at the February meeting of the Adams County Historical Society Tuesday evening in the court house.

The Rev. Mr. Leming traced the growth of the institution from its beginning on October 26, 1907, when George and Agnes Hoffman turned over the deed for a 192-acre Mt. Joy Twp. farm and $5,000 in cash to the Potomac Synod for the establishment of an orphanage.

The first board of trustees' meeting of six laymen and six pastors were held in 1909. The orphanage was chartered by the court in 1910 and the administration building was erected in 1911. The memorial chapel was dedicated in 1938 and there are plans on paper now for an additional building at the home to care for small children, he said.

Cared For 375 Children

The speaker said the first child was admitted in March, 1910, and about 375 have entered since that time. The present capacity is 65 with most of the children being between the ages of five and 18 years. He described the operation of the home and the program of activities and training for the youngsters and then showed colored slides of the orphanage and its work.

The history presented by the superintendent was based upon a history of the orphanage written by Albert Sterner, a Gettysburg

LIVESTOCK DAY IS BEING HELD

Use of synthetic hormones properly mixed with feeds will cause a 30 per cent faster gain in weight on steers and will provide the weight while using 10 to 20 per cent less feed, Dwight E. Younkin, Pennsylvania State University specialist, said today at the annual livestock day being held by the county agricultural extension association at the court house.

Better results are found when feeding steers on a high corn fattening ration, he said, and the cost of the hormone supplement to the feed is about one cent per steer per day. Use of the supplement also works well with steers on a high roughage diet.

He warned, however, that the hormone supplemented feeds should be fed only to cattle for slaughter and not to breeding cattle, sheep or swine. In cattle it may cause breeding problems, in sheep it causes several ailments and there is no research showing that it has any value for swine. He said the food and drug administration allows its use only for beef cattle being fed for slaughter.

Individual farmers cannot obtain the chemical hormone, and it can be secured only in mixed feeds. The ban against selling it direct to farmers is based on difficulties in mixing properly and dangers to individuals handling quantities of the chemical. There is no danger, however, from feeds, with which it has been mixed.

BIGGEST SNOW OF WINTER FOR GROUNDHOG DAY

If Mr. Grounhog was brave enough to take a look outside his winter abode this morning, he got a glimpse of the winter's heaviest snowfall here and likely did not see his shadow up to noon today.

With clearing skies and colder weather forecast, he may yet get a glimpse of his shadow later today—and retire into his underground quarters for another six weeks of winter.

Sleet and freezing rain began falling Tuesday evening soon after 6 o'clock. It later changed to snow and by 7 p.m. State Highway Department cinder crews were at work. Early this morning snow plows were put on the highways and when the snow slackened at noon, it was estimated that three to four inches had fallen here.

Highways Dangerous

The Highway Department had 63 men at work today on snow removal and cindering jobs. There were three graders and 10 plows removing snow and nine cinder crews with a total of 24 men on that assignment.

The borough snowplow was at work as was the National Park's snow plows on the battlefield.

Snowfall was general across Pennsylvania and some parts of the state received up to 13 inches of snow by noon.

Highways were very slippery Tuesday evening and the snow added to the traffic hazards. No serious mishaps were reported up to noon.

TWO TRUCKERS FINED

Two truck drivers were each fined $50 and costs Tuesday evening by Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore for driving overweighted vehicles. They are: Dennis George Anger, Toronto, Canada, and Theodore Henderson, Umatilich, Florida. Both were arrested by state police on Route 34, Cumberland Twp.

Firemen Plan Concert Of Civil War Songs By Choirs As Feature Of Observance

The Gettysburg Fire Department committee for the observance of the 92nd anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and the Fourth of July will introduce a new feature this year, it was decided at a meeting of the General Committee and committee chairmen Tuesday evening at the engine house.

Menges' program calls for a special concert Sunday night, July 3, at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial or on Memorial Field at the college. GETTYSBURG IS CLUB TOPIC FOR SECOND TIME

The Harrisburg Eclectic club continued Gettysburg as its discussion subject Monday night in Harrisburg when Edgar Z. Wallower, in charge of the January meeting, used the Battle of Gettysburg as his subject. In his presentation he eliminated much of the detail of the battle but portrayed his subject to reflect the thinking of the leaders of the two armies as a new and an interesting approach.

Members of the club were provided with large maps of the battlefield to enable them to follow the movement of the forces and to locate the areas and identify the terrain that influenced the the leaders on both sides.

Mr. Wallower conducted a forum following his presentation that lasted for more than one hour in which all attending participated.

Most Popular Topic

Monday's presentation followed that of the previous meeting in December when Major General E. J. Stackpole addressed the group on "Lee's Invasion of the North in June 1863."

It was stated at the conclusion of Monday evening's meeting that of all the subjects discussed by the Eclectic club, covering a broad range, the two meetings on the Gettysburg campaign ranked all others in interest and general participation.

Among those attending the meeting Monday evening were Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president emeritus of Gettysburg College, and Dr. Henry Edel, president of Dickinson College, both of whom are members of the Harrisburg organization.

FIRE SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY

The first session of the first Fire School held in Gettysburg since 1947 will be held next Monday night, Donald McSherry, chief of the Gettysburg Fire Department, said today. The class will be conducted from 7 until 10 o'clock.

McSherry said the school will be conducted for 18 weeks by Raymond Wadsworth, of Grantham, Pa., a graduate of the Pennsylvania State University course in fire fighting. He has been specially assigned to Gettysburg by the Pennsylvania Firemen's Association.

The course was initially limited to 40 members of the Gettysburg department but McSherry said that Wadsworth will accept a few more if they express a desire to attend the school.

Each weekly session will be for three hours.

The course will include instruction in hose loading, ladder work, rescue work, extinguisher work, pump operations and other subjects.

The school is free to members. The local fire company will pay for the books.

To Close Off Springs Ave. For Coasting

Burgess William G. Weaver took steps this morning to make sure that youngsters of the community get full benefit of the first real snow of the winter by announcing that Springs Ave. will be closed after school this afternoon for sledding.

The hill, favorite spot for coasting, will be closed each day after school until about 9 p.m. each evening as long as the sledding lasts, Burgess Weaver said.

While Springs Ave. is being reserved for sledding, coasting on other streets cannot be permitted, the burgess said, because of the danger to traffic and to the sledders.

SCOUT OATH IS ILLUSTRATED AT CLUB MEETING

Atty. Eugene Hartman, chairman of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District, illustrated the Scout Oath and the ways in which it helps prepare a boy to be a useful adult at the weekly meeting of the Exchange Club Tuesday evening at Bankert's Restaurant. The meeting was in observance of Boy Scout Week.

Attorney Hartman recited the Scout Oath, and quoted poems and essays to explain the value of each phrase. "On my honor, I will do my best," he began, and then illustrated this portion by reciting a poem dealing with "the need for fortitude in a man, so that he can take the blows that life strikes."

On the words "To God" Hartman cited the example of Christ as a humble Man who achieved no success or fame in the usual worldly ways, but whose life has greatly affected the world. On "and my country" he read the national prize-winning eassay by Elizabeth Evans, in the "I Speak For Democracy" Contest.

When he reached the phrase of the Oath, "to help others," he quoted a poem which included the statement that it is "not what we dream, but the good we do. . . ." He spoke of the need to live life to the fullest when he came to the portion of the Oath about being "physically strong,

BIGLERVILLE'S NEW SCHOOL IS IN USE; TO NEED ANOTHER SOON

Biglerville's new elementary school, into which approximately 210 youngsters were moved Monday, was the location and the featured attraction of Tuesday evening's meeting of the Upper Adams Lions Club.

The Lions became the first organization to dine in the new cafeteria at the school and heard from Leslie V. Stock, supervising principal of the Upper Adams Joint School System that even more building will probably be needed to keep up with the rapidly expanding enrollment.

"With a new school here and a new school just about completed at Arendtsville, you may think we are overbuilding. We have an extra classroom here now, but that will be filled by next fall. We have had an extra classroom at Bendersville since it was built several years ago but that will be filled by fall. And the new elementary school at Arendtsville will also be filed with students by this fall.

Amazing Increases

"The way the student body increases is something amazing. Three weeks ago we opened the doors of school one morning to find 16 new youngsters starting in school. During January we gained 28 new students. Translated that means we added one classroom during the month.

"And if the children now in elementary school keep on into high school we will have 260 more in the high school and we are already are full there."

"Completion of the $204,000 elementary building at Biglerville is about four weeks behind schedule. We had hoped to get into it by January 1," Stock said. "Work on the eight-room school at Arendtsville, which is identical to this building, will be completed in about six weeks. Work on the structure here started about nine months ago and it was about six weeks later that workmen began construction of

DEMONSTRATE MACHINERY FOR YOUNG FARMERS

Forty-one countians, members of the Gettysburg Young Farmers Association and the adult agriculture education class at Gettysburg High School viewed two demonstrations of the use of modern farm machinery Tuesday.

The farm was selected by the Farm Journal for an article marking the 75th anniversary of electric light. Manufacturers of various electrically powered farm equipment filled the farm with all modern devices.

Modern Devices

The local group found that two men spend two hours to milk 115 cows at the farm. Four bins each holding 2,100 bushels of grain operate automatically. A clock is set and at a certain hour each day the bins open, a certain amount of grain from each is emptied into a conveyor belt, the grain is

Two GOP State Officials Defy Governor's Order To Resign; May Go To Court

By JOHN KOENIG JR

HARRISBURG (AP) — Two of six holdover Republican state officials directed by Gov. George M. Leader to resign by Saturday or be fired today questioned the validity of the governor's action.

"There is no doubt about the governor's right to fire us after he has successors confirmed by the Senate," said Chairman Raymond A. Cox of the state Securities Commission, but added:

"My commission reads 'to serve until a successor is qualified.'"

Cox said he believes that phrase is meant as a "caretaker provision," insuring that a man holding a job be carried over until an adequate choice of a replacement has been made.

Askd whether he believed he had a basis for court action, Cox replied: "Very definitely."

David R. Perry, Liquor Control Board member, questioned the same phrase and said he is seeking legal advice.

Would Lose Pension

"On the basis of advice received so far, I will not resign," he said.

To do so, said Perry, would mean losing a state pension after 20 years of state service. Perry formerly was secretary to Gov. James H. Duff and served some years ago as a representative from Blair County.

The ultimatum went to Cox, Perry and four others to make room for six appointments that Leader sent to the Senate two weeks ago.

Senate Republicans—10 of their 26 votes are needed by the Democrats for confirmation—have held that they will not agree to any ap-

FTC HEARINGS RE-OPEN HERE ON THURSDAY

No major evidence has been produced by the government, according to a qualified observer, which is of importance to the government charges. The issues have been largely confined to the point stressed by the FTC in reversing the dismissal of charges recommended by former Examiner Frank T. Hier.

Evidence on the whole, the observer said, seems to sustain the contentions of the defense counsel and opinions given today by major growers. Delmar Robinson and Fred T. Glaize indicated continuous bargaining with the processors with almost every deal a special case.

WINCHESTER, Va. (AP)—Hearings being conducted by the Federal Trade Commission on alleged price fixing by apple growers will be resumed tomorrow at Gettysburg, Pa.

Hearings in Gettysburg will be in the Post Office building.

Testimony was given by Brown as to the competition from other processors both as to purchase of raw product and the sale of finished canned goods. Robinson testified regarding the bargaining and business transactions with individual processors.

The ruling by F. T. Hier was reversed by the FTC on the legal ground that a prima facie case existed in bulletins and letters of the Appalachian Apple Service of Martinsburg, W. Va., a grower's organization. It is charged by the FTC that apple prices were fixed Aug. 26, 1950, at a grower-processor meeting at Martinsburg, W. Va.

SEWER SYSTEM IS CONSIDERED BY EAST BERLIN

The East Berlin borough council at its February meeting Tuesday evening took steps to advance the move in that town for the construction and installation of a sanitary sewer system and treatment plan.

Preliminary estimates indicate a cost of upwards of $100,000 and councilmen informally discussed a plan by which the improvement could be financed with 40-year, self-liquidating, revenue bonds. The system would serve about 340-350 dwelling units.

Next step in the undertaking will be a town-wide survey to be made by members of the town council to determine how residents of the community feel about proceding with the undertaking. Councilmen believe the townfolk are in favor of the proposed improvements.

Consider Street Work

Council also received a report from Borough Engineer William E. Sees Jr., Harrisburg, on plans for curbing the main streets and for a street surfacing program in the town. These projects will be delayed temporarily until a decision is reached on the sanitary sewer system because of the street digging that could be involved.

The town already has its own water system.

Attending the meeting in addition to members of council were Mr. Sees and Attorney Charles W. Wolf, borough solicitor The members of the council are President Charles B. Wallace, C A. Eisenhart, George Mummert, J. S. Kohler, Charles Fahs and S. B. Krall. Burgess A. D. Himes and Borough Secretary Harper I. Philips also attended.

HISTORY OF ORPHANAGE IS TOPIC OF TALK

The history of the Hoffman Orphanage was reviewed and plans announced for the forthcoming construction of another cottage there by the Rev. Arthur Leming, superintendent of the orphanage at the February meeting of the Adams County Historical Society Tuesday evening in the court house.

The Rev. Mr. Leming traced the growth of the institution from its beginning on October 26, 1907, when George and Agnes Hoffman turned over the deed for a 192-acre Mt. Joy Twp. farm and $5,000 in cash to the Potomac Synod for the establishment of an orphanage.

The first board of trustees' meeting of six laymen and six pastors were held in 1909. The orphanage was chartered by the court in 1910 and the administration building was erected in 1911. The memorial chapel was dedicated in 1938 and there are plans on paper now for an additional building at the home to care for small children, he said.

Cared For 375 Children

The speaker said the first child was admitted in March, 1910, and about 375 have entered since that time. The present capacity is 65 with most of the children being between the ages of five and 18 years. He described the operation of the home and the program of activities and training for the youngsters and then showed colored slides of the orphanage and its work.

The history presented by the superintendent was based upon a history of the orphanage written by Albert Sterner, a Gettysburg

LIVESTOCK DAY IS BEING HELD

Use of synthetic hormones properly mixed with feeds will cause a 30 per cent faster gain in weight on steers and will provide the weight while using 10 to 20 per cent less feed, Dwight E. Younkin, Pennsylvania State University specialist, said today at the annual livestock day being held by the county agricultural extension association at the court house.

Better results are found when feeding steers on a high corn fattening ration, he said, and the cost of the hormone supplement to the feed is about one cent per steer per day. Use of the supplement also works well with steers on a high roughage diet.

He warned, however, that the hormone supplemented feeds should be fed only to cattle for slaughter and not to breeding cattle, sheep or swine. In cattle it may cause breeding problems, in sheep it causes several ailments and there is no research showing that it has any value for swine. He said the food and drug administration allows its use only for beef cattle being fed for slaughter.

Individual farmers cannot obtain the chemical hormone, and it can be secured only in mixed feeds. The ban against selling it direct to farmers is based on difficulties in mixing properly and dangers to individuals handling quantities of the chemical. There is no danger, however, from feeds, with which it has been mixed.

BIGGEST SNOW OF WINTER FOR GROUNDHOG DAY

If Mr. Grounhog was brave enough to take a look outside his winter abode this morning, he got a glimpse of the winter's heaviest snowfall here and likely did not see his shadow up to noon today.

With clearing skies and colder weather forecast, he may yet get a glimpse of his shadow later today—and retire into his underground quarters for another six weeks of winter.

Sleet and freezing rain began falling Tuesday evening soon after 6 o'clock. It later changed to snow and by 7 p.m. State Highway Department cinder crews were at work. Early this morning snow plows were put on the highways and when the snow slackened at noon, it was estimated that three to four inches had fallen here.

Highways Dangerous

The Highway Department had 63 men at work today on snow removal and cindering jobs. There were three graders and 10 plows rmeoving snow and nine cinder crews with a total of 24 men on that assignment.

The borough snowplow was at work as was the National Park's snow plows on the battlefield.

Snowfall was general across Pennsylvania and some parts of the state received up to 13 inches of snow by noon.

Highways were very slippery Tuesday evening and the snow added to the traffic hazards. No serious mishaps were reported up to noon.

TWO TRUCKERS FINED

Two truck drivers were each fined $50 and costs Tuesday evening by Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore for driving overweighted vehicles. They are: Dennis George Anger, Toronto, Canada, and Theodore Henderson, Umatilich, Florida. Both were arrested by state police on Route 34, Cumberland Twp.

FEBRUARY MAY IMPROVE ITS REPUTATION

NEW YORK (AP)—February has a chance this time to nix its reputation as a bearish month.

The forces that have often caused prices to drop in the second month of the year may be strong again this year. But traders point out that this time there are some counter forces that could make his February different.

Commodity prices—and stocks of some companies active in defense production—are under the influence of the cold war. It is considerably less chilly right now. The Formosa dispute—with its calculated risk of war—has sent some commodity prices up.

Schedules High

Here at home, the auto production race is sucking in large quantities of steel, other metals, rubber, glass, textiles. Fierce competition among the auto companies is holding February production schedules high.

More housing starts this spring than last are predicted by the Home Loan Board. The construction industry has been a big consumer of raw materials.

The price of farm products rose in January and Secretary of Agriculture Benson expects them to rise even higher in the spring. Expectation of a latter riseing stave off "the February break" this time.

Export Markets Better

Export markets are improving. Europe's great industrial revival—boosted later perhaps by plans to rearm Western Germany—has created a rising demand for steel and copper and petroleum. That demand sustains prices for many other commodities.

There are some weak factors too. Some brokers say the stock market may still be in for a bigger correction that occurred early in January. The huge surpluses of farm commodities and the greatly increased capacity for producing many industrial commodities overhang the markets. And, then February does have that bad name.

COUNTY SHARE

000 in 1952, according to State Government reports.

The county's estimated 1956 federal budget tax bite of $17,387,000 compares with 1953 total assessed real property valuations in this county of $19,145,000. This is the county's total assessed valuation in 1953, as reported by the State Tax Equalization Board.

Pennsylvania's estimated share of the 1956 federal budget cost, $4.7 billion, is over eight times greater than the total of all local taxes collected throughout Pennsylvania in 1952. Moreover, it would finance all appropriations to the General Fund of our State Government for nine years at present levels of expenditure.

Huge Bill For State

Further comparisons indicate that the $4.7 billion federal tax cost to Pennsylvanians is equal to approximately 70 per cent of all wages and salaries paid by this state's manufacturing, mining and quarrying industries in 1953, and amounts to nearly 60 per cent of all capital invested in these industries the same year.

Pennsylvania's share of the cost of proposed 1956 federal spending was computed by the State Chamber on the basis of a statistically-weighted formula which hows that Pennsylvanians pay 7.53 per cent of the cost of running the Federal Government.

The county shares in turn were computed on the basis of each county's population, retail sales, market value of taxable real property, and estimated effective buying income.

ANYBODY CAN GET INTO SHOW BUSINESS NOW

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Anybody can get into show business nowadays, says Elaine Perry, a Broadway producer who has amazed old pros by scoring two hits in two years.

Her current drama "Anastasia" has just been sold to the movies for $350,000, a fact which she regards with understandable satisfaction.

"It will help pay off the original investment, and assure all the investors," she says soberly. "You know, it's a big responsibility for a producer to know that a lot of people have put money into a show. You feel you just have to make it a success.

Hundreds Are Investors

"It used to be that the big producers put up all the money themselves and would not allow outside investors. But the tax situation and the rising cost of production has changed all that. Today hundreds of people have a piece of practically every show that opens—and they are people who often know nothing about show business, but like the excitement of being in on a show. Anybody can be a Broadway angel these days, if he has an adventurous spirit."

Elaine, one of the few women producers on Broadway, is the daughter of the late Antoinette Perry, one of the theater's most noted women directors, and the siser of Margaret Perry, well known as an actress, author and director. So it never occurred to her to go into any other endeavor except the theater.

Started As Actress

She started as an actress as soon as she was graduated from high school, appearing in several Brock Pemberton productions. Her first show under her own banner was "Touchstone," a flop.

This season "Anastasia," which she describes as "real drama with lots of schmaltz," is considered a top nonmusical hit on Broadway.

POLICE TEST HOMEMADE BOMB

The crude missile, described by state police as incapable of inflicting any major damage, was found by a gardener yesterday less than 50 feet from the spot where Gov. George M. Leader was inaugurated two weeks ago before 15,000 persons.

"From the condition of the paper bag in which the explosive matter was contained, I would think the bomb had only been there a few days," state police Commissioner Col. C. M. Wilhelm said.

He described the contents of the bag as an aspirin bottle full of gunpowder, a small bottle of gasoline, a few matches and a fuse.

"The most danger there could have been would be a loud noise," he said.

"Black Powder"

John Pete, a state gardener, discovered the bomb while he gathered scrap paper alongside steps leading from 3rd street to the main entrance of the capitol.

The missile was found at 10 a.m. but police made no mention of it until late afternoon following a consultation among Wilhelm, his staff and agent William Miller of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

An analysis of the gunpowder in the aspirin bottle, Wilhelm said, showed it to be the common "black powder" type. Its detonation would not have been louder than a .32 calibre bullet, he added.

3 TORNADOES KILL 31 PEOPLE

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Deadly tornadoes ripped through three Midsouth states yesterday, leaving 31 dead and about 100 injured along their haphazard path.

The storms, probing from the furious clouds of a squall line, struck in Arkansas and Alabama—with a bloody jackpot in Mississippi. Extensive property damage was reported.

Twenty-eight were killed near Commerce Landing, Miss., about 30 miles south of here, including an unidentified young girl who died today in a Memphis hospital. Three perished in another twister at Olive Branch, Miss., 18 miles south of Memphis.

Hop - scotching tornadoes also caused considerable damage near Marianna, Ark., and Huntsville, Ala., but no one was seriously injured.

Many of the Mississippi dead and injured were schoolchildren. Each twister had an elementary school dead center in its path.

National Guardsmen patrolled the Commerce Landing area today as survivors searched the Leatherman plantations splintered tenant houses for possible additional victims.

Most of the damage at Olive Branch centered at Wiggins Negro elementary school. Twenty-three students were at their desks when the twister struck. A teacher and two children were killed.

The 25-bed hospital at Tunica, about 15 miles south of Commerce Landing, was soon jammed. Volunteers, some of them pretty girls in party dresses, were organized to help the staff. A school was converted into a makeshift dormitory for the homeless.

The Commerce Landing tornado cut a swath 200 feet wide through the 8,000-acre Leatherman plantation, destroying a row of tenant houses, a Negro church, a school and a cotton gin.

W. V. France said the school was whipped away before his eyes, as if a giant hand had snatched it up and tossed both wreckage and bodies into the boiling clouds.

3 OVERCOME BY GAS FUMES

The presence of a Waddington, N. Y., tourist in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Sterner, 205 N. Stratton St. Sunday night probably saved their lives, although Mr. Sterner suffered a stroke at the time.

The couple was overcome by fumes and a tourist, Alton V. Veitch, of Waddington, N. Y., who has been stopping at the Sterner home on occasion for a number of years, heard the sound of someone falling—apparently Mr. Sterner.

Rushing from the front bedroom where he was staying, Mr. Veitch found both Mr. Sterner, who is in his 80's and Mrs. Sterner, who is in her 70's, unconscious.

He attempted to assist, and called for help. He became ill himself and was removed to the Warner Hospital. Following examination there, he was discharged Tuesday, apparently recovered from the fumes poisoning.

Neighbors, attracted by Veitch's calls, who came into the house also found themselves becoming ill after a time.

Mrs. Sterner was reported as recovering and was downstairs for the first time today.

Mr. Sterner, however, apparently suffered a stroke and has been unconscious at his home since Sunday night.

Firemen Plan Concert Of Civil War Songs By Choirs As Feature Of Observance

The Gettysburg Fire Department committee for the observance of the 92nd anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and the Fourth of July will introduce a new feature this year, it was decided at a meeting of the General Committee and committee chairmen Tuesday evening at the engine house.

Raymond E. Menges, general chairman, presented the new program and after a brief discussion it was adopted and a committee will be appointed to make the arrangement.

Menges' program calls for a special concert Sunday night, July 3, at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial or on Memorial Field at the college. The program will be the singing of songs popular during the Civil War years by a number of choral groups and choirs. Such favorites as "Tenting Tonight On The Old Camp Ground," "Oh, Susanna" and others will highlight the concert. It was also suggested that the program be offered to several radio stations for broadcasting purposes.

3,500 Donation Books

Committee members were enthusiastic over the new program and ventured the prediction that it may "very likely attract thousands of listeners."

Chairman Menges announced that 3,500 donation books will soon be available for distribution and that each fireman will be asked to dispose of fifteen books. "Our goal

GETTYSBURG IS CLUB TOPIC FOR SECOND TIME

The Harrisburg Eclectic club continued Gettysburg as its discussion subject Monday night in Harrisburg when Edgar Z. Wallower, in charge of the January meeting, used the Battle of Gettysburg as his subject. In his presentation he eliminated much of the detail of the battle but portrayed his subject to reflect the thinking of the leaders of the two armies as a new and an interesting approach.

Members of the club were provided with large maps of the battlefield to enable them to follow the movement of the forces and to locate the areas and identify the terrain that influenced the the leaders on both sides.

Mr. Wallower conducted a forum following his presentation that lasted for more than one hour in which all attending participated.

Most Popular Topic

Monday's presentation followed that of the previous meeting in December when Major General E. J. Stackpole addressed the group on "Lee's Invasion of the North in June 1863."

It was stated at the conclusion of Monday evening's meeting that of all the subjects discussed by the Eclectic club, covering a broad range, the two meetings on the Gettysburg campaign ranked all others in interest and general participation.

Among those attending the meeting Monday evening were Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president emeritus of Gettysburg College, and Dr. Henry Edel, president of Dickinson College, both of whom are members of the Harrisburg organization.

FIRE SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY

The first session of the first Fire School held in Gettysburg since 1947 will be held next Monday night, Donald McSherry, chief of the Gettysburg Fire Department, said today. The class will be conducted from 7 until 10 o'clock.

McSherry said the school will be conducted for 18 weeks by Raymond Wadsworth, of Grantham, Pa., a graduate of the Pennsylvania State University course in fire fighting. He has been specially assigned to Gettysburg by the Pennsylvania Firemen's Association.

The course was initially limited to 40 members of the Gettysburg department but McSherry said that Wadsworth will accept a few more if they express a desire to attend the school.

Each weekly session will be for three hours.

The course will include instruction in hose loading, ladder work, rescue work, extinguisher work, pump operations and other subjects.

The school is free to members. The local fire company will pay for the books.

The hill, favorite spot for coasting, will be closed each day after school until about 9 p.m. each evening as long as the sledding lasts, Burgess Weaver said.

While Springs Ave. is being reserved for sledding, coasting on other streets cannot be permitted, the burgess said, because of the danger to traffic and to the sledders.

SCOUT OATH IS ILLUSTRATED AT CLUB MEETING

Atty. Eugene Hartman, chairman of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District, illustrated the Scout Oath and the ways in which it helps prepare a boy to be a useful adult at the weekly meeting of the Exchange Club Tuesday evening at Bankert's Restaurant. The meeting was in observance of Boy Scout Week.

Attorney Hartman recited the Scout Oath, and quoted poems and essays to explain the value of each phrase. "On my honor, I will do my best," he began, and then illustrated this portion by reciting a poem dealing with "the need for fortitude in a man, so that he can take the blows that life strikes."

On the words "To God" Hartman cited the example of Christ as a humble Man who achieved no success or fame in the usual worldly ways, but whose life has greatly affected the world. On "and my country" he read the national prize-winning essay by Elizabeth Evans, in the "I Speak For Democracy" Contest.

When he reached the phrase of the Oath, "to help others," he quoted a poem which included the statement that it is "not what we dream, but the good we do. . . ." He spoke of the need to live life to the fullest when he came to the portion of the Oath about being "physically strong,

BIGLERVILLE'S NEW SCHOOL IS IN USE; TO NEED ANOTHER SOON

Biglerville's new elementary school, into which approximately 210 youngsters were moved Monday, was the location and the featured attraction of Tuesday evening's meeting of the Upper Adams Lions Club.

The Lions became the first organization to dine in the new cafeteria at the school and heard from Leslie V. Stock, supervising principal of the Upper Adams Joint School System that even more building will probably be needed to keep up with the rapidly expanding enrollment.

"With a new school here and a new school just about completed at Arendtsville, you may think we are overbuilding. We have an extra classroom here now, but that will be filled by next fall. We have had an extra classroom at Bendersville since it was built several years ago but that will be filled by fall. And the new elementary school at Arendtsville will also be filed with students by this fall.

Amazing Increases

"The way the student body increases is something amazing. Three weeks ago we opened the doors of school one morning to find 16 new youngsters starting in school. During January we gained 28 new students. Translated that means we added one classroom during the month.

"And if the children now in elementary school keep on into high school we will have 260 more in the high school and we are already are full there."

"Completion of the $204,000 elementary building at Biglerville is about four weeks behind schedule. We had hoped to get into it by January 1," Stock said. "Work on the eight-room school at Arendtsville, which is identical to this building, will be completed in about six weeks. Work on the structure here started about nine months ago and it was about six weeks later that workmen began construction of

By JOHN KOENIG JR

HARRISBURG (AP) — Two of six holdover Republican state officials directed by Gov. George M. Leader to resign by Saturday or be fired today questioned the validity of the governor's action.

"There is no doubt about the governor's right to fire us after he has successors confirmed by the Senate," said Chairman Raymond A. Cox of the state Securities Commission, but added:

"My commission reads 'to serve until a successor is qualified.'"

Cox said he believes that phrase is meant as a "caretaker provision," insuring that a man holding a job be carried over until an adequate choice of a replacement has been made.

Askd whether he believed he had a basis for court action, Cox replied: "Very definitely."

David R. Perry, Liquor Control Board member, questioned the same phrase and said he is seeking legal advice.

Would Lose Pension

"On the basis of advice received so far, I will not resign," he said.

To do so, said Perry, would mean losing a state pension after 20 years of state service. Perry formerly was secretary to Gov James H. Duff and served some years ago as a representative from Blair County.

The ultimatum went to Cox, Perry and four others to make room for six appointments that Leader sent to the Senate two weeks ago.

Senate Republicans—10 of their 26 votes are needed by the Democrats for confirmation—have held that they will not agree to any ap-

FTC HEARINGS RE-OPEN HERE ON THURSDAY

No major evidence has been produced by the government, according to a qualified observer, which is of importance to the government charges. The issues have been largely confined to the point stressed by the FTC in reversing the dismissal of charges recommended by former Examiner Frank T. Hier.

Evidence on the whole, the observer said, seems to sustain the contentions of the defense counsel and opinions given today by major growers. Delmar Robinson and Fred T. Glaize indicated continuous bargaining with the processors with almost every deal a special case.

WINCHESTER, Va. (AP)—Hearings being conducted by the Federal Trade Commission on alleged price fixing by apple growers will be resumed tomorrow at Gettysburg, Pa.

Hearings in Gettysburg will be in the Post Office building.

Testimony was given by Brown as to the competition from other processors both as to purchase of raw product and the sale of finished canned goods. Robinson testified regarding the bargaining and business transactions with individual processors.

The ruling by F. T. Hier was reversed by the FTC on the legal ground that a prima facie case existed in bulletins and letters of the Appalachian Apple Service of Martinsburg, W. Va., a grower's organization. It is charged by the FTC that apple prices were fixed Aug. 26, 1950, at a grower-processor meeting at Martinsburg, W. Va.

SEWER SYSTEM IS CONSIDERED BY EAST BERLIN

The East Berlin borough council at its February meeting Tuesday evening took steps to advance the move in that town for the construction and installation of a sanitary sewer system and treatment plan.

Preliminary estimates indicate a cost of upwards of $100,000 and councilmen informally discussed a plan by which the improvement could be financed with 40-year, self-liquidating, revenue bonds. The system would serve about 340-350 dwelling units.

Next step in the undertaking will be a town-wide survey to be made by members of the town council to determine how residents of the community feel about proceding with the undertaking. Councilmen believe the townfolk are in favor of the proposed improvements.

Consider Street, Work

Council also received a report from Borough Engineer William E Sees Jr., Harrisburg, on plans for curbing the main streets and for a street surfacing program in the town. These projects will be delayed temporarily until a decision is reached on the sanitary sewer system because of the street digging that could be involved.

The town already has its own water system.

Attending the meeting in addition to members of council were Mr. Sees and Attorney Charles W. Wolf, borough solicitor. The members of the council are President Charles B Wallace, C A. Eisenhart, George Mummert, J. S. Kohler, Charles Fahs and S. B. Krall. Burgess A. D. Himes and Borough Secretary Harper I. Philips also attended.

His announcement said simply: "I have been asked by a committee of lawyers to be a candidate for re-election as Judge."

HISTORY OF ORPHANAGE IS TOPIC OF TALK

The history of the Hoffman Orphanage was reviewed and plans announced for the forthcoming construction of another cottage there by the Rev. Arthur Leming, superintendent of the orphanage at the February meeting of the Adams County Historical Society Tuesday evening in the court house.

The Rev. Mr. Leming traced the growth of the institution from its beginning on October 26, 1907, when George and Agnes Hoffman turned over the deed for a 192-acre Mt. Joy Twp. farm and $5,000 in cash to the Potomac Synod for the establishment of an orphanage.

The first board of trustees' meeting of six laymen and six pastors were held in 1909. The orphanage was chartered by the court in 1910 and the administration building was erected in 1911. The memorial chapel was dedicated in 1938 and there are plans on paper now for an additional building at the home to care for small children, he said.

Cared For 375 Children

The speaker said the first child was admitted in March, 1910, and about 375 have entered since that time. The present capacity is 65 with most of the children being between the ages of five and 18 years. He described the operation of the home and the program of activities and training for the youngsters and then showed colored slides of the orphanage and its work.

The history presented by the superintendent was based upon a history of the orphanage written by Albert Sterner, a Gettysburg

LIVESTOCK DAY IS BEING HELD

Use of synthetic hormones properly mixed with feeds will cause a 30 per cent faster gain in weight on steers and will provide the weight while using 10 to 20 per cent less feed, Dwight E. Younkin, Pennsylvania State University specialist, said today at the annual livestock day being held by the county agricultural extension association at the court house.

Better results are found when feeding steers on a high corn fattening ration, he said, and the cost of the hormone supplement to the feed is about one cent per steer per day. Use of the supplement also works well with steers on a high roughage diet.

He warned, however, that the hormone supplemented feeds should be fed only to cattle for slaughter and not to breeding cattle, sheep or swine. In cattle it may cause breeding problems, in sheep it causes several ailments and there is no research showing that it has any value for swine. He said the food and drug administration allows its use only for beef cattle being fed for slaughter.

Individual farmers cannot obtain the chemical hormone, and it can be secured only in mixed feeds. The ban against selling it direct to farmers is based on difficulties in mixing properly and dangers to individuals handling quantities of the chemical. There is no danger, however, from feeds, with which it has been mixed.

BIGGEST SNOW OF WINTER FOR GROUNDHOG DAY

If Mr. Grounhog was brave enough to take a look outside his winter abode this morning, he got a glimpse of the winter's heaviest snowfall here and likely did not see his shadow up to noon today.

With clearing skies and colder weather forecast, he may yet get a glimpse of his shadow later today—and retire into his underground quarters for another six weeks of winter.

Sleet and freezing rain began falling Tuesday evening soon after 8 o'clock. It later changed to snow and by 7 p.m. State Highway Department cinder crews were at work. Early this morning snow plows were put on the highways and when the snow slackened at noon, it was estimated that three to four inches had fallen here.

Highways Dangerous

The Highway Department had 63 men at work today on snow removal and cindering jobs. There were three graders and 10 plows rmeoving snow and nine cinder crews with a total of 24 men on that assignment.

The borough snowplow was at work as was the National Park's snow plows on the battlefield.

Snowfall was general across Pennsylvania and some parts of the state received up to 13 inches of snow by noon.

Highways were very slippery Tuesday evening and the snow added to the traffic hazards. No serious mishaps were reported up to noon.

TWO TRUCKERS FINED

Two truck drivers were each fined $50 and costs Tuesday evening by Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore for driving overweighted vehicles. They are: Dennis George Anger, Toronto, Canada, and Theodore Henderson, Umatilich, Florida. Both were arrested by state police on Route 34, Cumberland Twp.

BIGLERVILLE'S

No decision was announced on what disposition will be made of the Community building at Biglerville, which was used as an elementary school for many years and from which the students moved Monday to their new elementary school building, nor what will become of the former Arendtsville high school building now being used as an elementary building at Arendtsville, or of the old frame elementary school at Arendtsville, which is also in use. However Stock's remarks indicated that the board will probably maintain the old buildnigs in anticipation of the increased enrollment—using them as need be for the overflow of youngsters until new structures are built.

With the completion of the new elementary school at Biglerville the Upper Adams jointure Monday will start a special education class for some 18 youngsters. Miss Alma Miller will be teacher for that special unit and Donald Bushey, Arendtsville, a graduate of Shippensburg State Teachers College, will take Miss Miller's place as fourth grade instructor, Stock announced.

Modern Furnishings

Large, light and beautifully painted and furnished, each of the new classrooms has a sink for washing facilities and the first grade rooms have their own adjoining bathrooms—with all facilities of a size fitting for the tiny six-year-olds.

Supervising Principal Stock told the Lions that where "for years we had a first grade enrollment of 75 youngsters, now for the past four or five years we have had 135 to 140 first graders coming into the school system each year."

Each classroom in the new building has two large closets for storing of school supplies. Book cases are built along one wall in each room to permit keeping required books at hand. Closets racks are built in recesses in walls and curtains will be placed in the near future closing off each clothes area. The racks vary in height from the floor in keeping with the sizes of the youngsters from first grade through sixth.

Hear Henry Roth

The kitchen portion of the cafeteria is separated from the main room of the combined cafeteria-auditorium by partitions which are mostly glass. A stage at the other end of the room for use when it is an auditorium instead of a cafeteria is still under construction. The health room in the new building is also still incomplete.

The 240 by 66-foot building is of cement block, steel, brick and glass, with a composition roof. A driveway has been constructed from the driveway which originally led to the rear of the high school building, up to a parking lot constructed to the east of the grade school structure. The new school is north and east of the high school gymnasium.

President Donald Horst presided at Tuesday's Lions Club session. Richard Raffenperger, chairman of the publicity committee, introduced G. Henry Roth, of The Gettysburg Times staff, who spoke briefly on newspapers and their operation. Cyrus Bucher gave the invocation opening the session. Next meeting of the Lions will be held February 15. An invitation was received from the McSherrystown Lions Club to enter a barbershop quartet contest to be held by that group May 11 at Delone High School.

WESTMINSTER 5 HANDS DELONE 62-32 SETBACK

The Delone Squires were crushed under the wings of the Westminster Owls 62-32 on the Westminster court Tuesday evening. The Squires now have four wins against 10 setbacks.

Missing over half of their foul shots, Coach Gene Bonnelli's lads were unable to gain any ground throughout the game. In the first quarter Delone tallied only three points on Dick Smith's rebound after four minutes and a free throw by Jim Breighner. Contributing to Westminster's 17 points in the initial frame was Andy Tawney with a pair of jump shots and a one-handed push. Tawney was assisted by Don Stimax's jump shots from the foul circle and Jim Lewis' jumps from inside.

The Squires tossed in only one field goal in the second period, that being a rebound by Phil Staub. Bob Bair, Dick Smith and Staub combined to hoop six out of nine free throws to give the Red and Blue team eight points and a total of 11 for the first half of play. The Owls forged ahead on a lay-up by Lewis, Stimax's jump shot, lay-ups on the fast break by Tawney and a couple of free tosses by Wolfe and Boyer. At the end of the first half Westminster had jumped to a 28-11 lead.

Delone Improves

Showing some improvement as the game progressed, the boys from McSherrystown opened the scoring after one minute of play in the third frame on a foul shot by Buddy Redding. Bair stole the ball for a lay-up but Lewis and Ecker closed in for more lay-ups on the fast break which was a great help to the Owls. Redding and Funk matched foul shots while Stimax, Tawney and Wolfe drove in for lay-ups. Redding started to hit on tosses from the side but Tawney, Wolfe and Lewis were finding it much easier to drive up the middle as the quarter ended. Westminster picked up nine more points to jump to a 48-22 lead.

As Bair and Greenholt matched Bowman and Sprinkle for lay-ups in the first two minutes of the last frame, Wolfe, Troxell, Boyer, and Shilling landed from the foul line. Breighner netted a one-handed jump as Funk tossed in a pair of free throws and Redding connected on a lay-up. As the quarter came to a close Sprinkle looped a tap in and Shilling added a push shot from outside and a foul.

Andy Troxell and Roger Wolfe led the winners in scoring with 14 and 12 points, respectively, while Buddy Redding and Bob Bair divided honors for the losers by sinking seven each.

Jaycees Triumph

The Delone reserves boosted their record to nine wins and four losses as they walked away with a 40-22 decision over the Westminster reserves. Delone gained a 19-10 lead at half time and was never in any trouble afterwards. Chuck Doll and Joe Poist led the winners in scoring as they tallied 9 and 8 points respectively. Jack Fringer and Bob Null each netted four for the Owls.

On Friday the Squires will travel to Lebanon for a non-conference engagement with Lebanon Catholic.

CLEAN STREAM BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa) has introduced a bill in the Senate to authorize two million dollars a year in federal expenditures and grants to further federal - state stream pollution studies.

The measure introduced yesterday would forward the cooperative research between the federal government and the various states involved in finding ways of reducing stream pollution.

Early Lambs Bring Problems But Better Price Pays Off

The producer of early lambs has his problems, more than the sheepman who plans lambing season for warm weather. But usually the selling price of early lambs justifies those extra problems, provided you can solve them.

Bad luck during lambing season is all too often the result of poor management and lack of preparation.

Even though sheep can stand considerable cold, they still need a well-bedded barn, free from drafts and damp floors, when lambs are dropped during the winter. You have to be on hand in person, to get a good lamb crop. Lambs may need help or they may become chilled. You just cannot get a full night's sleep and expect to wean a big lamb crop.

Get newly-born lambs dry quickly, and their stomachs full of milk. Put the lamb and her mother in a lambing pen or claiming pan made of two hurdles hinged together. There will be fewer disowned lambs, and you can feed the ewe more carefully. The ewe ought to get very little grain for the first two or three days.

When the lambs reach two weeks of age, give them access to a creep, where you feed them a simple grain mixture until pasture is ready in the spring. The creep should have openings about eight to 10 inches wide. Place it in a sunny corner of the barn or shed. Give lambs all the grain they will eat, and some choice hay that has been saved especially for them.

Watch For Cattle Lice And Grubs

Last week two crops meetings were held in the county. John Pepper, extension insect specialist, took part in the programs. One thing discussed which was of interest to the farmers attending was insect control on livestock.

Cattle lice usually are most abundant in late winter and early spring. Grubs start appearing in the backs of cattle in late January. Both pests cause loss in milk and weight. Lice also cause animals to have a shabby appearance. Grub holes reduce the value of hides and meat from the backs of slaughtered, infested animals as they must be trimmed out.

The choice of materials to use on the herd will depend upon what pests are to be controlled. Here are some suggestions that were offered by John Pepper.

Sprays And Dusts

Sprays:

1. Rotenone—7½ pounds of four to five per cent powder to 100 gallons of water. Effective on both grubs and lice. Treatments for grubs should start in February and be repeated at monthly intervals.

2. Lindane—1½ pounds of 25 per cent wettable powder plus 10 pounds of dry wettable sulfur to 100 gallons of spray. Effective on lice and mange but will not control grubs.

3. Methoxychlor—Eight pounds of 50 per cent wettable power to 100 gallons of spray. Good for lice but is not effective on grubs or mange.

Dusts:

1. Lindane, One per cent—for lice.

2. Methoxychlor, 10 per cent—for lice.

3. Rotenone-sulfur dust. Mix one pound of four to five per cent rotenone power with three pounds of dry wettable sulfur. Effective on both lice and grubs. For grubs, make three applications at monthly intervals, starting in February.

For lice, repeat any treatment in 10-14 days. Warning—Do not use lindane on cattle under six months of age.

Timely Reminders

Mid-winter is the time to plan for new plantings for the home garden. Check nursery and seed catalogs and select plants adapted to the location.

Where finances are limited, plantings for new homes may be spaced over a period of years. Shade trees usually get preference and may be established the first year. The front entrance planting can be selected, and the following year, the front can be completed. Next the side and rear of the house can be planted.

Border planting of shrubs and development of the outdoor living room area can follow still later.

Avoid planting tall-growing types of plants for home foundation treatments. Tall growing spruces, pines, hemlocks, firs and others should be avoided.

For foundation plantings select narrow-leaf evergreens. These may include Moon's Yew, Dwarf Upright Yew, Hatfield Yew, Intermediate Yew, Brown's Yew and dwarf Japanese Yew. Some outstanding broadleaf evergreens are Convex holly, round-leaf Japanese holly, American holly, hybrid rhododendrons, mountain laurel, Leucothoe, Laland scarlet firethorn, rock contoneaster, evergreen euonymus and hardy azaleas.

SNOW BLANKETS PENNSYLVANIA 1 TO 13 INCHES

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The winter season's third snow storm blanketed Pennsylvania today. From 1 to 13 inches fell in various sections of the commonwealth.

The weatherman predicted even more snow for most of the state with below freezing temperatures. Motorists were urged to stay off the highways.

In Philadelphia, the state's largest city, public transportation kept moving, but very slowly. Most people left their automobiles in the garages, prefering trains, buses, trolleys and subway and elevated cars. Trolley and bus service on some lines ran about half an hour behind schedule. Pennsylvania and Reading railroad trains were operating a few minutes late. Many schools in the suburbs were closed.

The greater Pittsburgh Airport reported four inches of snow. It was coming down heavily in Uniontown and Erie. There were a rash of skidding accidents in Pittsburgh. Some street car lines, including Greenfield and Hazlewood, were not in operation early today and other lines were crowded as a result.

In Montgomery County, at least 20 schools were reported closed. School officials said they were afraid to use buses on the treacherous roads. A spokesman at the state Highway Department's county headquarters in Ardmore said all of the county's state highways were open.

No decision was announced on what disposition will be made of the Community building at Biglerville, which was used as an elementary school for many years and from which the students moved Monday to their new elementary school building, nor what will become of the former Arendtsville high school building now being used as an elementary building at Arendtsville, or of the old frame elementary school at Arendtsville, which is also in use. However Stock's remarks indicated that the board will probably maintain the old buildings in anticipation of the increased enrollment—using them as need be for the overflow of youngsters until new structures are built.

With the completion of the new elementary school at Biglerville the Upper Adams jointure Monday will start a special education class for some 18 youngsters. Miss Alma Miller will be teacher for that special unit and Donald Bushey, Arendtsville, a graduate of Shippensburg State Teachers College, will take Miss Miller's place as fourth grade instructor, Stock announced.

Modern Furnishings

Large, light and beautifully painted and furnished, each of the new classrooms has a sink for washing facilities and the first grade rooms have their own adjoining bathrooms—with all facilities of a size fitting for the tiny six-year-olds.

Supervising Principal Stock told the Lions that where "for years we had a first grade enrollment of 75 youngsters, now for the past four or five years we have had 135 to 140 first graders coming into the school system each year."

Each classroom in the new building has two large closets for storing of school supplies. Book cases are built along one wall in each room to permit keeping required books at hand. Closets racks are built in recesses in walls and curtains will be placed in the near future closing off each clothes area. The racks vary in height from the floor in keeping with the sizes of the youngsters from first grade through sixth.

Hear Henry Roth

The kitchen portion of the cafeteria is separated from the main room of the combined cafeteria-auditorium by partitions which are mostly glass. A stage at the other end of the room for use when it is an auditorium instead of a cafeteria is still under construction. The health room in the new building is also still incomplete.

The 240 by 66-foot building is of cement block, steel, brick and glass, with a composition roof. A driveway has been constructed from the driveway which originally led to the rear of the high school building, up to a parking lot constructed to the east of the grade school structure. The new school is north and east of the high school gymnasium.

President Donald Horst presided at Tuesday's Lions Club session. Richard Raffenperger, chairman of the publicity committee, introduced G. Henry Roth, of The Gettysburg Times staff, who spoke briefly on newspapers and their operation. Cyrus Bucher gave the invocation opening the session. Next meeting of the Lions will be held February 15. An invitation was received from the McSherrystown Lions Club to enter a barbershop quartet contest to be held by that group May 11 at Delone High School.

WESTMINSTER 5 HANDS DELONE 62-32 SETBACK

The Delone Squires were crushed under the wings of the Westminster Owls 62-32 on the Westminster court Tuesday evening. The Squires now have four wins against 10 setbacks.

Missing over half of their foul shots, Coach Gene Bonnelli's lads were unable to gain any ground throughout the game. In the first quarter Delone tallied only three points on Dick Smith's rebound after four minutes and a free throw by Jim Breighner. Contributing to Westminster's 17 points in the initial frame was Andy Tawney with a pair of jump shots and a one-handed push. Tawney was assisted by Don Stimax's jump shots from the foul circle and Jim Lewis' jumps from inside.

The Squires tossed in only one field goal in the second period, that being a rebound by Phil Staub. Bob Bair, Dick Smith and Staub combined to hoop six out of nine free throws to give the Red and Blue team eight points and a total of 11 for the first half of play. The Owls forged ahead on a lay-up by Lewis, Stimax's jump shot, lay-ups on the fast break by Tawney and a couple of free tosses by Wolfe and Boyer. At the end of the first half Westminster had jumped to a 28-11 lead.

Delone Improves

Showing some improvement as the game progressed, the boys from McSherrystown opened the scoring after one minute of play in the third frame on a foul shot by Buddy Redding. Bair stole the ball for a lay-up but Lewis and Ecker closed in for more lay-ups on the fast break which was a great help to the Owls. Redding and Funk matched foul shots while Stimax, Tawney and Wolfe drove in for lay-ups. Redding started to hit on tosses from the side but Tawney, Wolfe and Lewis were finding it much easier to drive up the middle as the quarter ended. Westminster picked up nine more points to jump to a 48-22 lead.

As Bair and Greenholt matched Bowman and Sprinkle for lay-ups in the first two minutes of the last frame, Wolfe, Troxell, Boyer, and Shilling landed from the foul line. Breighner netted a one-handed jump as Funk tossed in a pair of free throws and Redding connected on a lay-up. As the quarter came to a close Sprinkle looped a tap in and Shilling added a push shot from outside and a foul.

Andy Troxell and Roger Wolfe led the winners in scoring with 14 and 12 points, respectively, while Buddy Redding and Bob Bair divided honors for the losers by sinking seven each.

Jaycees Triumph

The Delone reserves boosted their record to nine wins and four losses as they walked away with a 40-22 decision over the Westminster reserves. Delone gained a 12-10 lead at half time and was never in any trouble afterwards. Chuck Doll and Joe Poist led the winners in scoring as they tallied 9 and 8 points respectively. Jack Fringer and Bob Null each netted four for the Owls.

On Friday the Squires will travel to Lebanon for a non-conference engagement with Lebanon Catholic.

Most people left their automobiles in the garages, preferring trains, buses, trolleys and subway and elevated cars. Trolley and bus service on some lines ran about half an hour behind schedule. Pennsylvania and Reading railroad trains were operating a few minutes late. Many schools in the suburbs were closed.

The greater Pittsburgh Airport reported four inches of snow. It was coming down heavily in Uniontown and Erie. There were a rash of skidding accidents in Pittsburgh. Some street car lines, including Greenfield and Hazlewood, were not in operation early today and other lines were crowded as a result.

In Montgomery County, at least 20 schools were reported closed. School officials said they were afraid to use buses on the treacherous roads. A spokesman at the state Highway Department's county headquarters in Ardmore said all of the county's state highways were open.

Early Lambs Bring Problems But Better Price Pays Off

The producer of early lambs has his problems, more than the sheepman who plans lambing season for warm weather. But usually the selling price of early lambs justifies those extra problems, provided you can solve them.

Bad luck during lambing season is all too often the result of poor management and lack of preparation.

Even though sheep can stand considerable cold, they still need a well-bedded barn, free from drafts and damp floors, when lambs are dropped during the winter. You have to be on hand in person, to get a good lamb crop. Lambs may need help or they may become chilled. You just cannot get a full night's sleep and expect to wean a big lamb crop.

Get newly-born lambs dry quickly, and their stomachs full of milk. Put the lamb and her mother in a lambing pen or claiming pan made of two hurdles hinged together. There will be fewer disowned lambs, and you can feed the ewe more carefully. The ewe ought to get very little grain for the first two or three days.

When the lambs reach two weeks of age, give them access to a creep, where you feed them a simple grain mixture until pasture is ready in the spring. The creep should have openings about eight to 10 inches wide. Place it in a sunny corner of the barn or shed. Give lambs all the grain they will eat, and some choice hay that has been saved especially for them.

Watch For Cattle Lice And Grubs

Last week two crops meetings were held in the county. John Pepper, extension insect specialist, took part in the programs. One thing discussed which was of interest to the farmers attending was insect control on livestock.

Cattle lice usually are most abundant in late winter and early spring. Grubs start appearing in the backs of cattle in late January. Both pests cause loss in milk and weight. Lice also cause animals to have a shabby appearance. Grub holes reduce the value of hides and meat from the backs of slaughtered, infested animals as they must be trimmed out.

The choice of materials to use on the herd will depend upon what pests are to be controlled. Here are some suggestions that were offered by John Pepper.

Sprays And Dusts

Sprays:

1. Rotenone—7½ pounds of four to five per cent powder to 100 gallons of water. Effective on both grubs and lice. Treatments for grubs should start in February and be repeated at monthly intervals.

2. Lindane—1½ pounds of 25 per cent wettable powder plus 10 pounds of dry wettable sulfur to 100 gallons of spray. Effective on lice and mange but will not control grubs.

3. Methoxychlor—Eight pounds of 50 per cent wettable power to 100 gallons of spray. Good for lice but is not effective on grubs or mange.

Dusts:

1. Lindane, One per cent—for lice.

2. Methoxychlor, 10 per cent—for lice.

3. Rotenone-sulfur dust. Mix one pound of four to five per cent rotenone power with three pounds of dry wettable sulfur. Effective on both lice and grubs. For grubs, make three applications at monthly intervals, starting in February.

For lice, repeat any treatment in 10-14 days. Warning—Do not use lindane on cattle under six months of age.

Timely Reminders

Mid-winter is the time to plan for new plantings for the home garden. Check nursery and seed catalogs and select plants adapted to the location.

Where finances are limited, plantings for new homes may be spaced over a period of years. Shade trees usually get preference and may be established the first year. The front entrance planting can be selected, and the following year, the front can be completed. Next the side and rear of the house can be planted.

Border planting of shrubs and development of the outdoor living room area can follow still later.

Avoid planting tall-growing types of plants for home foundation treatments. Tall growing spruces, pines, hemlocks, firs and others should be avoided.

For foundation plantings select narrow-leaf evergreens. These may include Moon's Yew, Dwarf Upright Yew, Hatfield Yew, Intermediate Yew, Brown's Yew and dwarf Japanese Yew. Some outstanding broad-leaf evergreens are Convex holly, round-leaf Japanese holly, American holly, hybrid rhododendrons, mountain laurel, Leucothoe, Laland scarlet firethorn, rock contoneaster, evergreen euonymus and hardy azaleas.

Today's Talk

IDLERS

We think of one who is an idler as one who does nothing and thinks nothing. I have in mind the useful idlers—those who apparently do not seem to be doing anything, but whose minds, and even their bodies, are constantly attuned to something constructive and useful.

During Walt Whitman's life, many who noted him riding the Fifth Avenue buses in New York City, and tramping the fields of Long Island and about Camden, New Jersey, where he once lived, looked upon him as a queer, harmless fellow, not knowing that he was destined to be looked upon as one of America's and the world's greatest poets! No matter where he was he was composing himself into a great poem, later to become immortal as his "Leaves of Grass." I have a book in my librarh calling Whitman "The Magnificent Idler."

Other useful people who were looked down upon as idlers were "Johnny Appleseed," who distributed seeds over miles of territory of the Middle West, and left his monument everywhere he went. Then there was Vachel Lindsay, who went about the country reciting and singing his poems, asking only for a meal as he travelled about, and giving in return a pamphlet of his poems. An idler, many would say, but I never could. Everywhere he went he inspired love and admiration, though many misunderstood him. Another idler was John Muir, who travelled by foot to many states and to uninhabited regions, sleeping under the stars, but forever making notes of all that he saw and then later putting it into print for all mankind.

Never look upon a person as an idler merely because he may be sitting upon a park bench, alone, or listening to someone else who may be devoting much time to idle talk. The significant idler is the one who is forever thinking, no matter where he may be. That fellow Newton, who discovered the valuable law of gravitation, as he idled under a tree, and was hit oy an apple, is a striking example of a man who did some thinking as he took a nap!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Hats"

WEATHER-WISE

No prophet I who dares to say
How long the winter's going to be.
But, if upon a certain day
The ground hog should his shadow see
My grandsire, wise in nature's lore,
Said: "You'll wear flannels six weeks more."

"How do you know six weeks remain
Before the winter ups and goes?"
I'd ask. And grandpa would explain:
"I don't, but any ground hog knows.
When back into his hole he's gone
You'd better keep your flannels on."

I read predictions, day by day,
But still I cannot trust them all.
Sometimes when "weather fair," they say,
The skies are gray and rain will fall.
But if the sun the ground hog views,
Don't thow away your overshoes.

SAY CONGRESS SHOULD BOOST JOBLESS PAY

By NORMAN WALKER

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—AFL leaders said today that "polite appeals" from President Eisenhower to states to boost unemployment compensation payments have failed and it is time for Congress to impose higher benefit levels.

An increase both in the amount of benefits and their duration for jobless workers was advanced by the AFL Executive Council in winter session here as a major step toward maintaining the nation's purchasing power.

The council said the revisions are particularly needed now because the AFL expects unemployment, measured by the latest government count at 2,838,000 in December, to rise to 3½ to 4 million in February or March.

Few Have Heeded

At present, states pay an average $25 per week to workers insured by the unemployment insurance system. Eisenhower has twice called on states to raise the payments to equal half a worker's regular pay for as long as 26 weeks or half a year, of unemployment.

Few states have heeded this advice. There have been several attempts to have Congress boost benefits, including one last year, but they have never gotten very far.

Meanwhile, it was learned that the 10-million-member AFL has refused, out of dissatisfaction with the policies of Secretary of Labor Mitchell, to appoint a representative to a labor advisory council which Mitchell is trying to form.

The AFL, along with the CIO, United Mine Workers and the Independent railroad unions, were invited to name representatives to the group, which is to advise Mitchell on labor legislation and other matters. All except the AFL have named representatives. The AFL council may reconsider.

GOP IN HOUSE BOX DEMOCRATS ON GASOLINE TAX

HARRISBURG (AP)—House Democrats, neatly boxed in by Republicans political strategy, found themselves in a position today of opposing for the record a campaign promise attributed to Gov. George M. Leader.

The situation arose when the House voted 106-89 Monday night against a proposal to give full 100 per cent gasoline tax refunds to farmers for fuel used in their machinery.

Rep. Charles C. Smith, Republican floor leader, started the ball rolling when Democrats called up legisation to continue for another two years the 50 per cent refund plan first conceived by the GOP in 1949.

Smith hauled out a newspaper clipping which quoted Leader as saying at Scranton last April that he favored a 100 per cent refund. After reading the clipping, Smith offered an amendment to follow through on the 100 per cent proposal.

The amendment had been offered by Francis Worley (R-Adams). Worley also spoke in its support.

Worley told the House: "I've always been for a full refund and I think now is the time to do something for the farmer." Worley's amendment also would have abolished the filing fee.

Democrats were caught flat-footed. Rep. Albert S. Readinger, Democratic floor leader, conceded as much. He countered:

"We'll pick the time and place to determine what we want to do. We're not going to do it when the minority leader wants us to."

The Smith fired another one at Readinger.

His Second Shot

"The governor, when still a senator, sponsored legislation to provide up to 100 per cent refunds so it seems only right that we should help him along now," said Smith.

Readinger reiterated his party's position—that Democrats will do the amending at a time it suits themselves, not that of the Republicans.

The final echo came from Leader himself. He old a newsman:

"We propose to re-examine the entire question, including state aid for rural highways, but this is not the time or place to do it."

Teen-Agers Curfew Goes Into Effect

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A curfew on teen-agers went into effect Monday night in a move to curb juvenile delinquency. Those under 17 found on the streets after 10:30 p.m. were sent home, unless with parents, working in gainful employment, or on an errand at their parents' direction.

Names of violators were taken by police officers, and if the youngsters are caught again, they must appear in court with their parents. Curfew starts at 10:30 p.m. except Friday and Saturday, when it's at midnight. It lasts until 6 a.m.

WOULD COMPEL STATE TO USE PENNA. FUELS

HARRISBURG (AP)—A move to ban state purchase of coal or oil produced and mined outside Pennsylvania was hailed today as a possible aid to the state's unemployment problems.

Rep. Albert W. Johnson (R-McKean), who along with Republican leader Charles C. Smith sponsored the measure, said:

"They would be a good start in the right direction. Maybe they would influence all Pennsylvania industry to do the same."

Aid To Unemployment

State purchase of only Pennsylvania coal and oil would increase the demand for these items and thereby aid a critical unemployment problem in these fields, Johnson said.

Under present law the state awards contracts for supplies to the lowest bidder.

"Pennsylvania's oil industry in the northwestern counties is hard hit by the importation of non-Pennsylvania produced oil. We have a lot of unemployment in the oil fields. These measures would create a better demand for Pennsylvania crude oil," Johnson said.

PLOT TO FREE CONVICTS FAILS

OSSINING, N.Y. (AP)—A plot to free the inmates of Sing Sing Prison's death house by kidnaping the warden and his family has been disclosed by prison officials.

The daring project, planned for last summer but never carried out, would have been the first break ever made from the death house.

"It was doomed to failure from the very beginning," said Warden Wilfred Denno last night. "Nothing ever came of it. It was fantastic. It couldn't possibiy have worked."

Denno said a death row inmate, Romulo Rosario, last summer sent word to authorities in New York that he had "important information." A New York police sergeant went to see him and came away with the story of the escape plot in which outside gunmen were to grab the warden's family and force their way to the death house.

To back up his story, Rosario handed over a note from another convicted murdered asking him to join the plot.

"We get tips like this all the time," said Denno. "Naturally we check them out."

Bobo Blames Her Cousin For Trouble

NEW YORK (AP)—Barbara (Bobo) Rockefeller says the idea of putting her ailing father in a nursing home was originally suggested by a cousin who is now fighting the move.

The father, Julius Paulekas, 68, lives with his niece Miss Pauline Paulekas at Washington, Pa. Miss Paulekas recently announced that she wants the former coal miner to continue living with her but that Bobo is trying to move him to a nursing home.

After Miss Paulekas' statement was published, Bobo called newspapers Monday to say:

"I received letters and a telegram from Pauline that my father did not wish to stay there and that he belonged in the nursing home and that I should make arrangements for him."

HIGHER WAGES AND LESS JOBS SEEN BY AFL

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Higher wages but fewer jobs is the forecast for 1955 received by AFL leaders Tuesday as they opened top-level winter meetings.

The AFL Executive Council, 17-member policy-making group of the big labor organization, studied a report prepared by AFL economists predicting that unions will win substantial wage boosts this year.

The report, at the same time, expressed fear that unemployment will average about 4,000,000 throughout the year, or a million higher than the 3,000,000 jobless average of 1954.

An above normal increase among the available workers, partly due to scheduled reductions in the military forces, plus new productive efficiencies, were listed as reasons for the expected hike in the number of unemployed.

The AFL council was expected to endorse several steps designed to bolster the economy and help reduce unemployment. One favorite AFL antidote is higher exemptions to reduce income tax payments among wage earners. Another is to increase the present 75 cents an hour federal minimum wage.

The 1955 economic outlook put before the council said that wage increases, which it claims unions will seek and get in 1955, will help buoy consumer purchasing power.

"The net result," the report said, "will mean a rise in consumer expenditures. However, under present prospects, the increase will fall far short of the amount necessary to develop a high employment economy similar to 1953."

The American Music Conference estimates that three million Americans play the violin or viola.

3 TORNADOES KILL 31 PEOPLE

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Deadly tornadoes ripped through three Midsouth states yesterday, leaving 31 dead and about 100 injured along their haphazard path.

The storms, probing from the furious clouds of a squall line, struck in Arkansas and Alabama—with a bloody jackpot in Mississippi. Extensive property damage was reported.

Twenty-eight were killed near Commerce Landing, Miss., about 30 miles south of here, including an unidentified young girl who died today in a Memphis hospital. Three perished in another twister at Olive Branch, Miss., 18 miles south of Memphis.

Hop - scotching tornadoes also caused considerable damage near Marianna, Ark., and Huntsville, Ala., but no one was seriously injured.

Many of the Mississippi dead and injured were schoolchildren. Each twister had an elementary school dead center in its path.

National Guardsmen patrolled the Commerce Landing area today as survivors searched the Leatherman plantations splintered tenant houses for possible additional victims.

Most of the damage at Olive Branch centered at Wiggins Negro elementary school. Twenty-three students were at their desks when the twister struck. A teacher and two children were killed.

The 25-bed hospital at Tunica, about 15 miles south of Commerce Landing, was soon jammed. Volunteers, some of them pretty girls in party dresses, were organized to help the staff. A school was converted into a makeshift dormitory for the homeless.

The Commerce Landing tornado cut a swath 200 feet wide through the 8,000-acre Leatherman plantation, destroying a row of tenant houses, a Negro church, a school and a cotton gin.

W. V. France said the school was whipped away before his eyes, as if a giant hand had snatched it up and tossed both wreckage and bodies into the boiling clouds.

CHILD WELFARE

Yost. The election will be held in March.

Announcement was made that the monthly board rate for children over 15 years of age has been increased by the county commissioners from $20 to $22, effective January 1.

County Commissioners G. Ed Taughinbaugh and Karl Smith attended the meeting Tuesday evening.

Meet Study Home Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Orner, Fairfield, who operate the services' only "temporary study" home where children are placed "about whom we need more information," attended the board meeting and described the manner in which the home is conducted. Children usually stay there from six to nine months. The home has a capacity of six foster children and there are five there now. The Orners have three children of their own.

Mrs. Henry Bream spoke on the Pennsylvania Welfare forum and told of plans for a state-wide forum in Pittsburgh in March and an April regional meeting here.

In addition to the board members, Miss Bettie Livermore, executive secretary, and Mrs. D. A. Paddock of the staff attended.

3 OVERCOME BY GAS FUMES

The presence of a Waddington, N. Y., tourist in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Sterner, 205 N. Stratton St. Sunday night probably saved their lives, although Mr. Sterner suffered a stroke at the time.

The couple was overcome by fumes and a tourist, Alton V. Veitch, of Waddington, N. Y., who has been stopping at the Sterner home on occasion for a number of years, heard the sound of someone falling—apparently Mr. Sterner.

Rushing from the front bedroom where he was staying, Mr. Veitch found both Mr. Sterner, who is in his 80's and Mrs. Sterner, who is in her 70's, unconscious.

He attempted to assist, and called for help. He became ill himself and was removed to the Warner Hospital. Following examination there, he was discharged Tuesday, apparently recovered from the fumes poisoning.

Neighbors, attracted by Veitch's calls, who came into the house also found themselves becoming ill after a time.

Mrs. Sterner was reported as recovering and was downstairs for the first time today.

Mr. Sterner, however, apparently suffered a stroke and has been unconscious at his home since Sunday night.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Middletown's Zone Defense Throttles Warriors 58-28 Jayvees Lose Prelim 39-36

Dispaying their weakest offense of the season, the Gettysburg High School Warriors went down to their 11th straight defeat here Tuesday evening before Middletown High as the second half race of the South Penn Basketball League got underway.

The visiting Blue Raiders threw up a zone defense which completely bottled up the Warrior attack throughout. John Archer, husky Middletown center, proved a powerhouse under the boards and kept his squad well in front throughout the first three periods with five goals.

Goals by Archer and Bill McGlynn got Middletown off to a 4-0 lead but Jim Everly and Merle Gorman knotted the count with twin-pointers at 2:45 minutes. A pair of goals by Tom Reid sent the Blue Raiders to the front and they were never seriously threatened thereafter. The first period found the visitors leading 14-6.

Double Count

A trio of goals by Archer against shots by Rolf Johnson and Gorman made it 20-10 midway in the second frame. Johnson added another Warrior goal just before the half ended with Middletown in front 28-14.

Late in the third quarter Gorman, Bill Woods and Glenn Weishaar netted Warrior field goals but the visitors held a 37-32 lead as the last round began.

Reid, third scorer in the league who had a miserable three periods, finally broke loose with four goals and a pair of fouls in the last period as the Blue Raiders raced away with the game. George Forney swept his bench clean about midway in thhe quarter.

At Hershey Thursday

The Warrior reserves dropped a 39-36 decision after a bitterly waged preliminary game. For the most part the teams battled on even terms although the locals failed to display the form which brought them two recent victories.

On Thursday evening the Warrior teams journey to Hershey to tangle with the highly-regarded Trojans.

WIENER GIVES GOVERNMENT SUIT BACKING

By FRED B. WALTERS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Chairman Frank Wiener of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission said today that the "government is on the right foot" in its efforts to press an anti-trust suit against the International Boxing Club.

"The IBC certainly is a monopoly," Wiener declared in an interview.

He suggested that all the state boxing commissions get together, with backing of their governors, and "limit TV and the IBC."

The Supreme Court Monday ruled boxing was, subject to anti-trust laws.

Wiener's attack on the IBC was made as he revealed that he had written to Gov. George M. Leader of Pennsylvania that he "would welcome the opportunity to join with you and the attorney general in furthering any inquiry" into Pennsylvania boxing.

Leader, backing up a promise made in his campaign for office, has given his blessing to a probe of Pennsylvania boxing asked by state Sen. Benjamin R. Donolow, a Philadelphia Democrat.

The feeling in Philadelphia was that the investigation would not amount to anything. Several fight figures, including Wiener, criticized the present policy of television fights and suggested a study of boxing should begin there.

No Fraud, He Says

Wiener said in his letter that he was convinced "present laws governing boxing are badly in need of revision and amendment. . ." He said the changes were needed for the elimination of undesirables who unfortunately plague boxing, not only in Pennsylvania, but throughout the nation."

Weiner said of his commission that "we stand no nonsense here." He said that in his experience, there has not been any one decision "in the whole state where there has been anything like fraud."

He referred to the Johnny Bratton-Johnny Saxton and Saxton-Kid Gavilan fights which originated here and were televised nationally. Wiener said they were the only two bad fights to his knowledge but that the commission couldn't prove any intent of wrongdoing in either.

Canadians, Bell In Friendly Talk

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A meeting between executives of the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Big Four league and Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League over player raiding turned out to be "a very friendly discussion."

Last week the Big Four, with Toronto dissenting, sought to make peace with the NFL and stop the raiding of players.

"I had to tell them that as I saw it they should get their own house in order and then come back here. I expressed the opinion that all Canada ought to get united and agree on what they want and then we could really get something done," Bell said.

"Slingin' Sam" To Be Gridiron Coach

The gangling guy from Sweetwater, whose passing records with the old 'Skins may always be the goal of the youngsters, signed a 5-year contract last night to coach Hardin-Simmons University's cowboys, an aggregation sometimes strong and always colorful.

He succeeds Murray Evans who resigned Sunday under what he termed pressure from the athletic committee. Baugh then said he wouldn't take the head coach job but would continue to "help out" as an associate.

BAD SHOWINGS BY "SUGAR" AND "KID" COSTLY

NEW YORK (AP)—What a difference one fight makes! Ask Kid Gavilan and Sugar Ray Robinson. The last ones for each cost them at least $50,000.

Gavilan's miserable showing in losing his title to Johnny Saxton and Robinson's sad performance against Ralph (Tiger) Jones ruined a third meeting of the two for Miami late this month. It was going to be a big outdoor promotion with a coast-to-coast telecast.

Now that's out, and the big money too. It's going to be along road back — if they make it — for two of the brightest names in boxing of the last decade.

Kid Tries Comeback

Gavilan starts his comeback Friday night in Madison Square Garden against Ernie (The Rock) Durando, a hard-hitting but easy-to-hit opponent. Robinson, who never looked for even a fleeting moment like the Sugar Ray of old in losing to Jones, is pondering whether to try again or call it quits for good.

A fighter is the last one to know when he's through. It could be that the 29-year-old Keed from Camguey is all washed up. But the veteran of 11½ years of pro battling and 117 scraps doesn't think so.

Going After Title

When you discuss the drab Saxton fight with him, all that Gavilan recalls is that he was "robbed." He doesn't talk about how bad he looked on that Oct. 20 night in Philadelphia.

"I not washed up," said Gavilan at his Summit, N.J., training camp. "I show plenty people Friday, you see. I got new manager and I happy now.

"I beat Durando, then I win back the welterweight title — my title. And then maybe I win middleweight title too."

Adams County Boys' League

Eddie Dasher, star forward for the unbeaten Boiling Springs dribblers, proved too much for Littlestown Tuesday evening as he connected for 32 points to lead the Bubblers to a 65-54 victory at Littlestown in an Adams County League game. Dasher, who is the league's top scorer, rammed 12 goals and eight fouls through the hoops and played a fine game on grabbing rebounds.

Littlestown gave the league-leaders quite a tussle in the first half and led 27-26 at intermission but 26 points in the third period by the Bubblers iced the game. The Thunderbolts built up a three-point edge in the early minutes of the third frame but Dasher broke loose with 12 points during the last 5:30 minutes to give the invaders their big margin. Jay Showvaker and "Slim" Warner each accounted for 15 points for the losers.

N. O. Keeps Pace

New Oxford remained two games back of Boiling Springs by crushing Fairfield 67-40 on the Fairfield floor.

Russ Sohnleitner's outfit manufactured an 18-6 lead in the first period and was never in trouble. All New Oxford players scored with George Spangler and Bill Little landing 14 and 13. Sam Scott led Fairfield with 14.

East Berlin built up a 36-19 margin at the end of three periods and then withstood a last quarter surge by Newville to triumph 14-35 at Newville.

LeDane Swope and Harold Cooley sparked the winners with 11 and 10 points. Martin tabbed 13 for the losers.

Biglerville gave a brilliant performance from the foul line, 15 for 17, to nip New Springs 55-46 on the Canners' floor. The victory kept the Canners in a tie with East Berlin for third place.

TERRY BRENNAN KEPT BUSY ON DINNER CIRCUIT

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—It was just a year ago yesterday Terry Brennan, then 25, became Notre Dame's head football coach succeeding illness - plagued Frank Leahy.

"I don't know how many banquets I've hit in the past two months, but it's two seasons of the knife and fork circuit crammed into one because I didn't appear at any banquets last winter," he said.

Looking For Prospects

Brennan, to be sure, isn't making the rounds just to test his popularity. A very astute chap, he knows Notre Dame's national appeal to Catholic prep stars, and his eyes and ears are open on the road as a good will salesman of the Irish.

"You can never have too many good players on hand in the fall," is Terry's cryptic coaching philosophy. It's no secret around Notre Dame that a superior frosh group is needed and wanted.

Sharper Test Ahead

His second Irish season next fall will be a sharper test than last fall's debut when—with a solid Leahy inheritance—Brennan won won nine games and lost only to Purdue.

Brennan knows this, but with an absence of pessimism that is surprising in a protege of Leahy's, Terry comments: "It's still much too early to tell whether we're going to do a good job."

"Our big need for the future is linemen, from tackle to tackle," he continued. "We need help and we need it now. The freshman team last fall wasn't a great one and neither was the one the previous year."

KNOCKS HIMSELF OUT

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Ever hear of a fighter knocking himself out?

Willie Moore, 183, Pittsburgh, let go a roundhouse swing at Gene White, 193, Canonsburg, Pa. in the second round of their prelim last night. He missed and his momentum carried him out of the ring. He was counted out before he could get back. White got credit for a kayo.

REMOVES "BLUE LAW"

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rep. Francis X. Muldowney (D - Philadelphia) has introduced legislation to make it clear that basketball can be played on Sundays in Pennsylvania between 2 p.m. and 7 p.m.

At present, there is a question whether the state's "blue laws," dating back to Colonial days, prohibit basketball games on Sunday. Muldowney introduced the bill last night.

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Gettysburg College cagers will be host to the powerful Quantico Marines in the Eddie Plank Memorial gymnasium. There will be no preliminary game.

The Leathernecks are composed of a galaxy of former collegiate stars and currently are seeking their fourth straight All-Marine Corps cage championship.

JR. HI DEFEATS SQUIRES 36-26 FOR FIRST WIN

Gettysburg Junior High played its best game of the season as it gained its first victory by upsetting the Delone Freshmen 36-26 Tuesday evening on the McSherrystown floor.

The triumph snapped a seven-game losing streak for the Braves and avenged a previous 22-21 loss to the Squires here earlier in the season.

Coach Howie Shoemaker's charges got off to a 10-6 lead in the first period and then maintained a narrow lead the remainder of the way, sewing up the decision with 13 points in the final stanza.

All of the starting Braves broke into the scoring with Sydney Steinour topping the group with 12 tallies. Staub of Delone led his team with 10.

The local reserves held an 8-6 half time lead but fell behind in the third period to drop the preliminary game 18-15.

CRUSADERS WIN SIXTH STRAIGHT UNDER SHEARY

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
The Associated Press

When Lester (Buster) Sheary began coaching basketball at Holy Cross in 1948, he had some mighty big shoes to fill. He replaced Alvin (Doggie) Julian, whose Crusaders had won 65 and lost 10 in his three seasons at Holy Cross.

But Sheary, in making the jump from high school to college coaching, has done a good job. Under him, the Crusaders have won 148 games against only 31 setbacks—including a 12-2 record this season.

Holy Cross won the Sugar Bowl and NIT tournaments last year, but the outlook didn't appear bright at the outset of the current campaign. Graduation had taken its toll with high-scoring Togo Palazzi and playmaker Ronnie Perry among the missing. In addition, last year's freshman squad was poor.

Sixth Straight

Nevertheless, with Tommy Heinsohn taking up the scoring slack, the Crusaders have been nearly as strong as ever.

Idle for the past two weeks because of midyear examinations, the Crusaders, ranked 14th in the weekly Associated Press poll, returned to action last night with an 82-56 triumph over St. Francis of Brooklyn. It was Holy Cross' sixth straight victory.

N. C. State Wins

Three others of the nation's top 20 teams, North Carolina State (No. 6), Dayton (No. 15) and Missouri (tied for No. 17), played last night.

Vic Molodet tallied 34 points as N. C. State came from behind to turn back Virginia 98-91 in an Atlantic Coast Conference game. Dayton, paced by big Bill Uhl's 23 points, bowled over Western Kentucky 73-67. Missouri moved into undisputed possession of second place in Big Seven with an 84-67 triumph over Iowa State.

BIGLER JUNIOR HI CAGERS WIN 5TH STRAIGHT

Bob Garrett's fast-stepping Biglerville Junior High basketball team won its fifth straight victory and sixth decision in seven starts by outclassing Boiling Sping 60-15 on the Bubbler's court Tuesday.

After gaining a 20-4 edge in the first quarter, the Canners were never threatened.

The Canners will play Hanover Junior High at Hanover Friday evening where they will attempt to avenge their only reverse of the season. The jayvee teams will clash at 6:30.

ALARMED OVER BIG GOLF RUSH FOR PRO GOLD

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Golf's new "gold rush"—the mad break for professional ranks by many of the sport's brightest youngsters — is creating alarm in the game's higher circles.

Isaac B. Grainger, president of the U. S. Golf Assn., sounded his concern in a talk before the ruling body last Saturday and today reemphasized:

4 Champs Now Pros

Four of the last five amateur champions—Sam Urzetta (1950), Billy Maxwell (1951), Gene Littler (1953) and Arnold Palmer (1954) — have deserted to the money game along with such other leading amateurs as Frank Stranahan, Al Mengert, Bud Holscher, Dow Finsterwald, Tom Nieporte and Wesley Ellis.

"We have no complaint against players who having decided they have reached their pinnacle as an amateur decide to become professionals," Grainger said.

"Professionals are vital to the game and we have only admiration for those who seek to make golf a career. But we are concerned over those who use our amateur events as stepping stones to further their pro ambitions."

Discourage Switch

The USGA executive said he had no particular individuals in mind "because I cannot look into their minds and know what their intentions were."

"But if they knew they were going to turn pro and decided to use their amateur success to help in the big switch," he added, "then I think it was grossly unfair to the true amateurs."

The USGA has a rule making a nonamateur of anyone who professes pro ambitions and the pros, in order to discourage hasty decisions, don't permit a newcomer to collect a purse for six months.

Dispaying their weakest offense of the season, the Gettysburg High School Warriors went down to their 11th straight defeat here Tuesday evening before Middletown High as the second half race of the South Penn Basketball League got underway.

The visiting Blue Raiders threw up a zone defense which completely bottled up the Warrior attack throughout. John Archer, husky Middletown center, proved a powerhouse under the boards and kept his squad well in front throughout the first three periods with five goals.

Goals by Archer and Bill McGlynn got Middletown off to a 4-0 lead but Jim Everly and Merle Gorman knotted the count with twin-pointers at 2:45 minutes. A pair of goals by Tom Reid sent the Blue Raiders to the front and they were never seriously threatened thereafter. The first period found the visitors leading 14-6.

Double Count

A trio of goals by Archer against shots by Rolf Johnson and Gorman made it 20-10 midway in the second frame. Johnson added another Warrior goal just before the half ended with Middletown in front 28-14.

Late in the third quarter Gorman, Bill Woods and Glenn Weishaar netted Warrior field goals but the visitors held a 37-32 lead as the last round began.

Reid, third scorer in the league who had a miserable three periods, finally broke loose with four goals and a pair of fouls in the last period as the Blue Raiders raced away with the game. George Forney swept his bench clean about midway in thhe quarter.

At Hershey Thursday

The Warrior reserves dropped a 39-36 decision after a bitterly waged preliminary game. For the most part the teams battled on even terms although the locals failed to display the form which brought them two recent victories.

On Thursday evening the Warrior teams journey to Hershey to tangle with the highly-regarded Trojans.

WIENER GIVES GOVERNMENT SUIT BACKING

By FRED B. WALTERS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Chairman Frank Wiener of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission said today that the "government is on the right foot" in its efforts to press an anti-trust suit against the International Boxing Club.

"The IBC certainly is a monopoly," Wiener declared in an interview.

He suggested that all the state boxing commissions get together, with backing of their governors, and "limit TV and the IBC."

The Supreme Court Monday ruled boxing was, subject to anti-trust laws.

Wiener's attack on the IBC was made as he revealed that he had written to Gov. George M. Leader of Pennsylvania that he "would welcome the opportunity to join with you and the attorney general in furthering any inquiry" into Pennsylvania boxing.

Leader, backing up a promise made in his campaign for office, has given his blessing to a probe of Pennsylvania boxing asked by state Sen. Benjamin R. Donolow, a Philadelphia Democrat.

The feeling in Philadelphia was that the investigation would not amount to anything. Several fight figures, including Wiener, criticized the present policy of television fights and suggested a study of boxing should begin there.

No Fraud, He Says

Wiener said in his letter that he was convinced "present laws governing boxing are badly in need of revision and amendment. . ." He said the changes were needed for "the elimination of undesirables who unfortunately plague boxing, not only in Pennsylvania, but throughout the nation."

Weiner said of his commission that "we stand no nonsense here." He said that in his experience, there has not been any one decision "in the whole state where there has been anything like fraud."

He referred to the Johnny Bratton-Johnny Saxton and Saxton-Kid Gavilan fights which originated here and were televised nationally. Wiener said they were the only two bad fights to his knowledge but that the commission couldn't prove any intent of wrongdoing in either.

Canadians, Bell In Friendly Talk

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A meeting between executives of the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Big Four league and Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League over player raiding turned out to be "a very friendly discussion."

Last week the Big Four, with Toronto dissenting, sought to make peace with the NFL and stop the raiding of players.

"I had to tell them that as I saw it they should get their own house in order and then come back here. I expressed the opinion that all Canada ought to get united and agree on what they want and then we could really get something done," Bell said.

"Slingin' Sam" To Be Gridiron Coach

The gangling guy from Sweetwater, whose passing records with the old 'Skins may always be the goal of the youngsters, signed a 5-year contract last night to coach Hardin-Simmons University's cowboys, an aggregation sometimes strong and always colorful.

He succeeds Murray Evans who resigned Sunday under what he termed pressure from the athletic committee. Baugh then said he wouldn't take the head coach job but would continue to "help out" as an associate.

BAD SHOWINGS BY "SUGAR" AND "KID" COSTLY

NEW YORK (AP)—What a difference one fight makes! Ask Kid Gavilan and Sugar Ray Robinson. The last ones for each cost them at least $50,000.

Gavilan's miserable showing in losing his title to Johnny Saxton and Robinson's sad performance against Ralph (Tiger) Jones ruined a third meeting of the two for Miami late this month. It was going to be a big outdoor promotion with a coast-to-coast telecast.

Now that's out, and the big money too. It's going to be along road back — if they make it — for two of the brightest names in boxing of the last decade.

Kid Tries Comeback

Gavilan starts his comeback Friday night in Madison Square Garden against Ernie (The Rock) Durando, a hard-hitting but easy-to-hit opponent. Robinson, who never looked for even a fleeting moment like the Sugar Ray of old in losing to Jones, is pondering whether to try again or call it quits for good.

A fighter is the last one to know when he's through. It could be that the 29-year-old Keed from Camguey is all washed up. But the veteran of 11½ years of pro battling and 117 scraps doesn't think so.

Going After Title

When you discuss the drab Saxton fight with him, all that Gavilan recalls is that he was "robbed." He doesn't talk about how bad he looked on that Oct. 20 night in Philadelphia.

"I not washed up," said Gavilan at his Summit, N.J., training camp. "I show plenty people Friday, you see. I got new manager and I happy now.

"I beat Durando, then I win back the welterweight title — my title. And then maybe I win middleweight title too."

Adams County Boys' League

Eddie Dasher, star forward for the unbeaten Boiling Springs dribblers, proved too much for Littlestown Tuesday evening as he connected for 32 points to lead the Bubblers to a 65-54 victory at Littlestown in an Adams County League game. Dasher, who is the league's top scorer, rammed 12 goals and eight fouls through the hoops and played a fine game on grabbing rebounds.

Littlestown gave the league-leaders quite a tussle in the first half and led 27-26 at intermission but 26 points in the third period by the Bubblers iced the game. The Thunderbolts built up a three-point edge in the early minutes of the third frame but Dasher broke loose with 12 points during the last 5:30 minutes to give the invaders their big margin. Jay Showvaker and "Slim" Warner each accounted for 15 points for the losers.

N. O. Keeps Pace

New Oxford remained two games back of Boiling Springs by crushing Fairfield 67-40 on the Fairfield floor.

Russ Sohnleitner's outfit manufactured an 18-6 lead in the first period and was never in trouble. All New Oxford players scored with George Spangler and Bill Little landing 14 and 13. Sam Scott led Fairfield with 14.

East Berlin built up a 36-19 margin at the end of three periods and then withstood a last quarter surge by Newville to triumph 14-35 at Newville.

LeDane Swope and Harold Cooley sparked the winners with 11 and 10 points. Martin tabbed 13 for the losers.

Biglerville gave a brilliant performance from the foul line, 15 for 17, to nip Nork Springs 55-46 on the Canners' floor. The victory kept the Canners in a tie with East Berlin for third place.

TERRY BRENNAN KEPT BUSY ON DINNER CIRCUIT

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—It was just a year ago yesterday Terry Brennan, then 23, became Notre Dame's head football coach succeeding illness - plagued Frank Leahy.

"I don't know how many banquets I've hit in the past two months, but it's two seasons of the knife and fork circuit crammed into one because I didn't appear at any banquets last winter," he said.

Looking For Prospects

Brennan, to be sure, isn't making the rounds just to test his popularity. A very astute chap, he knows Notre Dame's national appeal to Catholic prep stars, and his eyes and ears are open on the road as a good will salesman of the Irish.

"You can never have too many good players on hand in the fall," is Terry's cryptic coaching philosophy. It's no secret around Notre Dame that a superior frosh group is needed and wanted.

Sharper Test Ahead

His second Irish season next fall will be a sharper test than last fall's debut when—with a solid Leahy inheritance—Brennan won won nine games and lost only to Purdue.

Brennan knows this, but with an absence of pessimism that is surprising in a protege of Leahy's, Terry comments: "It's still much too early to tell whether we're going to do a good job."

"Our big need for the future is linemen, from tackle to tackle," he continued. "We need help and we need it now. The freshman team last fall wasn't a great one and neither was the one the previous year."

KNOCKS HIMSELF OUT

Willie Moore, 183, Pittsburgh, let go a roundhouse swing at Gene White, 193, Canonsburg, Pa. in the second round of their prelim last night. He missed and his momentum carried him out of the ring. He was counted out before he could get back. White got credit for a kayo.

REMOVES "BLUE LAW"

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rep. Francis X. Muldowney (D - Philadelphia) has introduced legislation to make it clear that basketball can be played on Sundays in Pennsylvania between 2 p.m. and 7 p.m.

At present, there is a question whether the state's "blue laws," dating back to Colonial days, prohibit basketball games on Sunday. Muldowney introduced the bill last night.

Marines, Bullets In Cage Battle Here Tonight

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Gettysburg College cagers will be host to the powerful Quantico Marines in the Eddie Plank Memorial gymnasium. There will be no preliminary game.

The Leathernecks are composed of a galaxy of former collegiate stars and currently are seeking their fourth straight All-Marine Corps cage championship.

JR. HI DEFEATS SQUIRES 36-26 FOR FIRST WIN

Gettysburg Junior High played its best game of the season as it gained its first victory by upsetting the Delone Freshmen 36-26 Tuesday evening on the McSherrystown floor.

The triumph snapped a seven-game losing streak for the Braves and avenged a previous 22-21 loss to the Squires here earlier in the season.

Coach Howie Shoemaker's charges got off to a 10-6 lead in the first period and then maintained a narrow lead the remainder of the way, sewing up the decision with 13 points in the final stanza.

All of the starting Braves broke into the scoring with Sydney Steinour topping the group with 12 tallies. Staub of Delone led his team with 10.

The local reserves held an 8-6 half time lead but fell behind in the third period to drop the preliminary game 18-15.

CRUSADERS WIN SIXTH STRAIGHT UNDER SHEARY

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
The Associated Press

When Lester (Buster) Sheary began coaching basketball at Holy Cross in 1948, he had some mighty big shoes to fill. He replaced Alvin (Doggie) Julian, whose Crusaders had won 65 and lost 10 in his three seasons at Holy Cross.

But Sheary, in making the jump from high school to college coaching, has done a good job. Under him, the Crusaders have won 148 games against only 31 setbacks—including a 12-2 record this season.

Holy Cross won the Sugar Bowl and NIT tournaments last year, but the outlook didn't appear bright at the outset of the current campaign. Graduation had taken its toll with high-scoring Togo Palazzi and playmaker Ronnie Perry among the missing. In addition, last year's freshman squad was poor.

Sixth Straight

Nevertheless, with Tommy Heinsohn taking up the scoring slack, the Crusaders have been nearly as strong as ever.

Idle for the past two weeks because of midyear examinations, the Crusaders, ranked 14th in the weekly Associated Press poll, returned to action last night with an 82-56 triumph over St. Francis of Brooklyn. It was Holy Cross' sixth straight victory.

N. C. State Wins

Three others of the nation's top 20 teams, North Carolina State (No. 6), Dayton (No. 15) and Missouri (tied for No. 17), played last night.

Vic Molodet tallied 34 points as N. C. State came from behind to turn back Virginia 98-91 in an Atlantic Coast Conference game. Dayton, paced by big Bill Uhl's 23 points, bowled over Western Kentucky 73-67. Missouri moved into undisputed possession of second place in Big Seven with an 84-67 triumph over Iowa State.

BIGLER JUNIOR HI CAGERS WIN 5TH STRAIGHT

Bob Garrett's fast-stepping Biglerville Junior High basketball team won its fifth straight victory and sixth decision in seven starts by outclassing Boiling Sping 60-15 on the Bubbler's court Tuesday.

After gaining a 20-4 edge in the first quarter, the Canners were never threatened.

The Canners will play Hanover Junior High at Hanover Friday evening where they will attempt to avenge their only reverse of the season. The jayvee teams will clash at 6:30.

ALARMED OVER BIG GOLF RUSH FOR PRO GOLD

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Golf's new "gold rush"—the mad break for professional ranks by many of the sport's brightest youngsters — is creating alarm in the game's higher circles.

Isaac B. Grainger, president of the U. S. Golf Assn., sounded his concern in a talk before the ruling body last Saturday and today reemphasized:

4 Champs Now Pros

Four of the last five amateur champions—Sam Urzetta (1950), Billy Maxwell (1951), Gene Littler (1953) and Arnold Palmer (1954) — have deserted to the money game along with such other leading amateurs as Frank Stranahan, Al Mengert, Bud Holscher, Dow Finsterwald, Tom Nieporte and Wesley Ellis.

"We have no complaint against players who having decided they have reached their pinnacle as an amateur decide to become professionals," Grainger said.

"Professionals are vital to the game and we have only admiration for those who seek to make golf a career. But we are concerned over those who use our amateur events as stepping stones to further their pro ambitions."

Discourage Switch

The USGA executive said he had no particular individuals in mind "because I cannot look into their minds and know what their intentions were."

"But if they knew they were going to turn pro and decided to use their amateur success to help in the big switch," he added, "then I think it was grossly unfair to the true amateurs."

The USGA has a rule making a nonamateur of anyone who professes pro ambitions and the pros, in order to discourage hasty decisions, don't permit a newcomer to collect a purse for six months.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Communists, credited with being cunning characters, probably kick themselves for a pair of colossal blunders: their handling of Formosa and Korea. They did it the hard way, and backwards.

For six months in 1950 they evidently could have taken Formosa without American opposition. Instead, they tackled South Korea. They might have had both if they had worked in reverse. They would up with neither.

Five years ago Formosa was wide open to the Red Chinese. They had driven Chiang Kai-shek there from the mainland. And President Truman said on Jan. 5, 1950, the United States would not defend Chiang.

Chiang In Bad Shape

Chiang was in poor shape to defend himself. American diplomats predicted the fall of the island. The way seemed clear. Why then didn't the Chinese Communists cross the 100 miles of water separating Formosa from the mainland?

Since they had just taken over the mainland, they may have thought they had some homework to do first. Perhaps they felt they lacked enough equipment for an invasion of Formosa. Or perhaps they felt they could take their time.

The United States in the first half of 1950 was militarily weak, cutting its armed forces even more, and showing no signs or intentions of getting stronger or into a fight for Formosa. The Reds let six months pass.

Truman's Surprise

Then the North Korean Communists invaded South Korea in June 1950. Truman, no doubt to the surprise of the Reds, put the United States into the war and threw the 7th Fleet into defense of Formosa. It has been there since.

In the intervening five years the American mood changed. The United States decided to keep Formosa from the Communists. The defense of Formosa now is stronger than any time since World War II. The Reds had missed their main chance.

If they had taken Formosa before grabbing for Korea, they might have been solidly in the island now. And, because of their strategic location on Formosa, the United States might not have in anyway.

Why did the Red Chinese and the Russians let the Korean Communists try to take South Korea before Formosa was invaded? Probably because at the moment it looked like the softer touch.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The price of rayon carpet staples made by the American Viscose Corp. is going up 2 to 3 cents per pound on March 1.

Vice President Harry L. Dalton said yesterday the increase "is being made partially to offset expenses involved in the expanded promotion of the tufton quality plan inaugurated last fall and partially because of increased manufacturing costs."

FREEDOM TWP. BANK BALANCE DROPS IN '54

Freedom Twp. finished 1954 operations "in the red," according to its year-end report, but the bank balance covers the deficit easily. The report was filed Monday with the clerk of courts.

Freedom's revenue income for 1954 totaled $5,093.36, while the expenditures added up to $5,416.08. The bank balance shrank during the year from $1,102.93 to $780.21. There were no debs or unpaid bills listed.

Of the $5,093.36 income, $1,083.54 came from general taxes. The five-mill real estate tax yielded $944.43 in current payments and $74.13 in back payments. The occupations tax brought in $54.98 in current levies and $10.50 in prior year payments. Freedomites owed $65.10 in the former tax and $12.84 in the former tax and $12.84 in the later, as of January 1.

The other sources of income were: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, $3,141.44; Adams County, $697.88; liquor licenses and taxes, $150, and fines, $20.

Among the expenses, general government cost $444.61 in the township and $52.73 went for insurance. The maintenance of the township's 12 miles of earth roads and one mile of improved highway cost $4,779.38.

The supervisors for Freedom are Garland S. Lefler, chairman, and Daniel Shorb, both of Fairfield R. 2. The secretary-treasurer is William M. Scott, Gettysburg R. 2. The auditors are James W. Bigham and Clarence J. Waybright, both of Gettysburg R. 2.

BANK MERGERS CHANGE SCENE AMONG GIANTS

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Bank mergers are scrambling he lineup of the 18 in the nation that have deposits in excess of one billion dollars.

And by the end of this year mergers now being discussed among the top 18 will lower the total, unless weddings of other banks just under the billion-dollar class produce newcomers to the list.

Merger talk is uppermost in the minds of bank stockholders at most of the annual meetings. Competition is the reason in most cases.

Taking On Branches

The money in banking is now in the neighborhoods, the big banks in the financial districts have come to believe. So old-style "Wall Street type" banks are acquiring branches by merging with others that already have large branch systems scattered through the cities or suburbs.

That is the reason given by Chase National Bank of New York, No. 3 in the list of the 18 largest, in asking stockholders to approve a merger with the Bank of the Manhattan Co., No. 15 of the giants. After the wedding, Chase Manhattan will move into No. 2 spot, replacing National City Bank of New York, unless that bank makes some such move of its own.

San Francisco's Bank of America will retain its top position — it had more than eight billion dollars in deposits at the end of 1954 — partly because California law permits it to have branches throughout the state, while New York law won't let Gotham banks have branches beyond New York's city limits.

Neighborhood branches reach their new importance because: (1) depositors won't bother with city traffic to bank at downtown institutions; (2) the shift in income levels has made new and less concentrated groups of persons using banks; (3) growth of use of credit for consumer purchasing has opened a lucrative and highly competitive field for commercial banks as well as finance companies; (4) banks look for a higher volume of loans this year to business, big and small, and many business firms now patronize the branches instead of doing their borrowing in Wall Street or Montgomery Street.

New Jersey Plant Closed By Strike

SAYREVILLE, N.J. (AP)—Production was at a standstill today at the National Lead Co.'s titanium division here as CIO workers staged a strike in a dispute over a new contract.

The walkout began shortly after last midnight. Members of Local 366, CIO United Gas Coke and Chemical Workers, voted 547-375 last night against a proposed new contract which had been worked out by union and company representatives the previous day. Some 1,200 employes are involved in the strike.

A company spokesman said the rejected agreement provided for an 8-cent hourly wage boost, which would bring the average pay rate to $2.26. Union spokesmen were not available for comment.

Today's Talk

IDLERS

We think of one who is an idler as one who does nothing and thinks nothing. I have in mind the useful idlers—those who apparently do not seem to be doing anything, but whose minds, and even their bodies, are constantly attuned to something constructive and useful.

During Walt Whitman's life, many who noted him riding the Fifth Avenue buses in New York City, and tramping the fields of Long Island and about Camden, New Jersey, where he once lived, looked upon him as a queer, harmless fellow, not knowing that he was destined to be looked upon as one of America's and the world's greatest poets! No matter where he was he was composing himself into a great poem, later to become immortal as his "Leaves of Grass." I have a book in my librarh calling Whitman "The Magnificent Idler."

Other useful people who were looked down upon as idlers were "Johnny Appleseed," who distributed seeds over miles of territory of the Middle West, and left his monument everywhere he went. Then there was Vachel Lindsay, who went about the country reciting and singing his poems, asking only for a meal as he travelled about, and giving in return a pamphlet of his poems. An idler, many would say, but I never could. Everywhere he went he inspired love and admiration, though many misunderstood him. Another idler was John Muir, who travelled by foot to many states and to uninhabited regions, sleeping under the stars, but forever making notes of all that he saw and then later putting it into print for all mankind.

Never look upon a person as an idler merely because he may be sitting upon a park bench, alone, or listening to someone else who may be devoting much time to idle talk. The significant idler is the one who is forever thinking, no matter where he may be. That fellow Newton, who discovered the valuable law of gravitation, as he idled under a tree, and was hit oy an apple, is a striking example of a man who did some thinking as he took a nap!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Hats"

WEATHER-WISE

No prophet I who dares to say
How long the winter's going to be.
But, if upon a certain day
The ground hog should his shadow see
My grandsire, wise in nature's lore,
Said: "You'll wear flannels six weeks more."

"How do you know six weeks remain
I'd ask. And grandpa would explain:
"I don't, but any ground hog knows.
When back into his hole he's gone

I read predictions, day by day,
But still I cannot trust them all.
Sometimes when "weather fair," they say,
The skies are gray and rain will fall.

By NORMAN WALKER

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—AFL leaders said today that "polite appeals" from President Eisenhower to states to boost unemployment compensation payments have failed and it is time for Congress to impose higher benefit levels.

An increase both in the amount of benefits and their duration for jobless workers was advanced by the AFL Executive Council in winter session here as a major step toward maintaining the nation's purchasing power.

The council said the revisions are particularly needed now because the AFL expects unemployment, measured by the latest government count at 2,838,000 in December, to rise to 3½ to 4 million in February or March.

Few Have Heeded

At present, states pay an average $25 per week to workers insured by the unemployment insurance system. Eisenhower has twice called on states to raise the payments to equal half a worker's regular pay for as long as 26 weeks or half a year, of unemployment.

Few states have heeded this advice. There have been several attempts to have Congress boost benefits, including one last year, but they have never gotten very far.

Meanwhile, it was learned that the 10-million-member AFL has refused, out of dissatisfaction with the policies of Secretary of Labor Mitchell, to appoint a representative to a labor advisory council which Mitchell is trying to form.

The AFL, along with the CIO, United Mine Workers and the Independent railroad unions, were invited to name representatives to the group, which is to advise Mitchell on labor legislation and other matters. All except the AFL have named representatives. The AFL council may reconsider.

GOP IN HOUSE BOX, DEMOCRATS ON GASOLINE TAX

HARRISBURG (AP)—House Democrats, neatly boxed in by Republicans political strategy, found themselves in a position today of opposing for the record a campaign promise attributed to Gov. George M. Leader.

The situation arose when the House voted 106-89 Monday night against a proposal to give full 100 per cent gasoline tax refunds to farmers for fuel used in their machinery.

Rep. Charles C. Smith, Republican floor leader, started the ball rolling when Democrats called up legisation to continue for another two years the 50 per cent refund plan first conceived by the GOP in 1949.

Smith hauled out a newspaper clipping which quoted Leader as saying at Scranton last April that he favored a 100 per cent refund. After reading the clipping, Smith offered an amendment to follow through on the 100 per cent proposal.

The amendment had been offered by Francis Worley (R-Adams). Worley also spoke in its support.

Worley told the House: "I've always been for a full refund and I think now is the time to do something for the farmer." Worley's amendment also would have abolished the filing fee.

Democrats were caught flat-footed. Rep. Albert S. Readinger, Democratic floor leader, conceded as much. He countered:

"We'll pick the time and place to determine what we want to do. We're not going to do it when the minority leader wants us to."

His Second Shot

"The governor, when still a senator, sponsored legislation to provide up to 100 per cent refunds so it seems only right that we should help him along now," said Smith.

Readinger reiterated his party's position—that Democrats will do the amending at a time it suits themselves, not that of the Republicans.

The final echo came from Leader himself. He old a newsman:

Teen-Agers Curfew Goes Into Effect

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A curfew on teen-agers went into effect Monday night in a move to curb juvenile delinquency. Those under 17 found on the streets after 10:30 p.m. were sent home, unless with parents, working in gainful employment, or on an errand at their parents' direction.

Names of violators were taken by police officers, and if the youngsters are caught again, they must appear in court with their parents. Curfew starts at 10:30 p.m. except Friday and Saturday, when it's at midnight. It lasts until 6 a.m.

WOULD COMPEL STATE TO USE PENNA. FUELS

HARRISBURG (AP)—A move to ban state purchase of coal or oil produced and mined outside Pennsylvania was hailed today as a possible aid to the state's unemployment problems.

Rep. Albert W Johnson (R-McKean), who along with Republican leader Charles C. Smith sponsored the measure, said:

Aid To Unemployment

State purchase of only Pennsylvania coal and oil would increase the demand for these items and thereby aid a critical unemployment problem in these fields, Johnson said.

"Pennsylvania's oil industry in the northwestern counties is hard hit by the importation of non-Pennsylvania produced oil. We have a lot of unemployment in the oil fields. These measures would create a better demand for Pennsylvania crude oil." Johnson said.

PLOT TO FREE CONVICTS FAILS

OSSINING, N.Y. (AP)—A plot to free the inmates of Sing Sing Prison's death house by kidnaping the warden and his family has been disclosed by prison officials.

The daring project, planned for last summer but never carried out, would have been the first break ever made from the death house.

"It was doomed to failure from the very beginning," said Warden Wilfred Denno last night. "Nothing ever came of it. It was fantastic. It couldn't possibly have worked."

Denno said a death row inmate, Romulo Rosario, last summer sent word to authorities in New York that he had "important information." A New York police sergeant went to see him and came away with the story of the escape plot in which outside gunmen were to grab the warden's family and force their way to the death house.

To back up his story, Rosario handed over a note from another convicted murdered asking him to join the plot.

"We get tips like this all the time," said Denno. "Naturally we check them out."

Bobo Blames Her Cousin For Trouble

NEW YORK (AP)—Barbara (Bobo) Rockefeller says the idea of putting her ailing father in a nursing home was originally suggested by a cousin who is now fighting the move.

The father, Julius Paulekas, 68, lives with his niece Miss Pauline Paulekas at Washington, Pa. Miss Paulekas recently announced that she wants the former coal miner to continue living with her but that Bobo is trying to move him to a nursing home.

After Miss Paulekas' statement was published, Bobo called newspapers Monday to say:

"I received letters and a telegram from Pauline that my father did not wish to stay there and that he belonged in the nursing home and that I should make arrangements for him."

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

HIGHER WAGES AND LESS JOBS SEEN BY AFL

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Higher wages but fewer jobs is the forecast for 1955 received by AFL leaders Tuesday as they opened top-level winter meetings.

The AFL Executive Council, 17-member policy-making group of the big labor organization, studied a report prepared by AFL economists predicting that unions will win substantial wage boosts this year.

The report, at the same time, expressed fear that unemployment will average about 4,000,000 throughout the year, or a million higher than the 3,000,000 jobless average of 1954.

An above normal increase among the available workers, partly due to scheduled reductions in the military forces, plus new productive efficiencies, were listed as reasons for the expected hike in the number of unemployed.

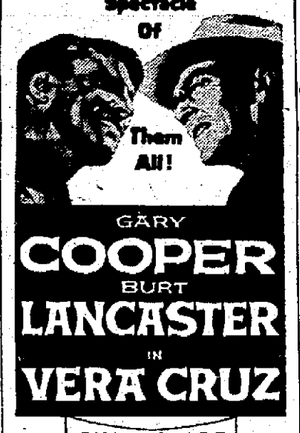

The AFL council was expected to endorse several steps designed to bolster the economy and help reduce unemployment. One favorite AFL antidote is higher exemptions to reduce income tax payments among wage earners. Another is to increase the present 75 cents an hour federal minimum wage.

The 1955 economic outlook put before the council said that wage increases, which it claims unions will seek and get in 1955, will help buoy consumer purchasing power.

"The net result," the report said, "will mean a rise in consumer expenditures. However, under present prospects, the increase will fall far short of the amount necessary to develop a high employment economy similar to 1953."

The American Music Conference estimates that three million Americans play the violin or viola.

At the reorganizational meeting of the Dillsburg Ministerial Association recently Rev. K. Belmont Metzger was elected president; Rev. John H. Beamer, vice president, and Rev. David Andrews, secretary-treasurer. Messrs. Metzger and Andrews were appointed dean and assistant dean, respectively, of the Vacation Church School, which will be held from June 6 to 17.

The organization voted to invite the ministers of rural churches to join the association and to participate in union services wherever possible. Pastors of the neighboring churches are being invited to preach at the Union Holy Week services, which will be held in local churches April 4 to 8.

The United Youth Fellowship will sponsor a community Sunrise service at7 a.m. Easter morning.

Plan Referendum

Rev. William T. Swaim Jr., was appointed chairman of the committee to organize the temperance forces of the community for the next local option referendum on the issuing of retail beer and liquor licenses.

The ministerial association will meet the last Monday in each month at 6:30 p.m. at the homes of the members, in rotation.

Rev. K. Belmont Metzer officiated recently at the graveside service for Edward Harbold, Kingston, Pa., a former resident of Dillsburg, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Harbold.

RALSTON SPEAKS

Cameron Ralston, Dillsburg R. 2, widely known lecturer, spoke on Tuesday evening at the Harrisburg Scottish Society, starting their second year of existence. The group celebrated its own first anniversary and the 196th birthday of Robert Burns. Mr. Ralston was in introduced by Dr. Gilbert Malcolm, vice president of Dickinson College.

Hobbies Unlimited

Webster tells us that a "pamphleteer is a writer of pamphlets or a pamphlet—often used contemptuously." Although Rev. William T. Swaim Jr., pastor of Monaghan Presbyterian Church, Dillsburg, is a pamphleteer, it would be safe to say that his works are never used contemptuously.

His hobby started when he attended grade school and "published" a one-sheet news letter that was distributed in his classroom—circulation, one copy. Since that time this energetic minister has been turning out reams of copy on just about every subject.

Twenty-one years ago he founded and became editor of "The Presbyterian Home," a magazine for the various Presbyterian Homes in Pennsylvania. At its incorporation, circulation was 5,000 and through the years of Rev. Mr. Swaim's "captaincy" has been increased t 55,000. About 12 years ago he accelerated his present hobby of compiling data and printing it in the form of pamphlets. In 1949 he was elected District Governor of the Rotary Club, embracing five states. During that time he wrote extensively about that organization.

"Good Rotary Club"

One of his many outstanding works is "500 Marks of a Good Rotary Club" which was translated into French and has been distributed throughout the world. Other of his Rotary writings are "Public Relations of Rotary," "Dear George, You Can Organize a Rotary Club," and "Rotary Service to the Aging." Several of his writings are done in acrostics, two of which are "Search of Scriptures" and "Acrostics of the Revised Standard Version of the Bible." As pastor of the Monaghan Presbyterian Church he became interested in the church's history and spent countless hours in compiling a thorough history of its illustrious life from its inception up to the present time. In connection with "The History of Monaghan Church" he has written biographies of two former ministers. Rev. Geoge Duffield, pastor from 1769-1772 and chaplain of the First Continental Congress, and Rev. Joseph A. Murray, pastor from 1842 to 1858.

Writes Of Mansion

To prove that just about any subject interests him, Rev. Mr. Swaim has printed pamphlets on "The Public Relations of a School Teacher," "The Value of Living Trees," "Friendship" and "The Swaim Mansion," his 150-year-old stone house in Mt. Holly Springs. Another, "300 Tests of a Good Speech," is currently being used as a text book for a public speaking course he is conducting in Dillsburg. None of his pamphlets have been written because of necessity to do a job, but strictly for the joy of creating.

Needless to say this hobby is truly a time consuming one. In addition to it, he continues active in the Rotary Club and is chairman of the forthcoming annual Conference of Rotary Clubs of the South Central District which will be held at Gettysburg College April 10-12.

Rev. Mr. Swaim is also in demand as a speaker. He is also executive director of Presbyterian Homes for the Aged throughout Central Pennsylvania in addition to his ministerial duties.

Hartman then spoke of a boy and read a popular poem on "What Is a Boy?"

"Movement Can't Fail"

"With an oath like that, and with boys like that, the Boy Scout movement can't fail," he concluded, and urged that adults also participate in the movement in as many ways as they can.

Charles Harris, field representative for the Black Walnut and Conewago Districts, spoke briefly. He lauded the troop leaders as "really the top men on the scouting ladder." He spoke of a safari in the York-Adams area which will be held this summer. He explained the Explorer Scout program and its system of merit badges and described some of the trips which the Explorers have taken.

The Exchange Club also had as guests the Scoutmaster and one scout from each of the Gettysburg troops, and the advisor and one explorer scout from each Explorer Post. They were introduced by President Thomas C. Benner. is to help the fire company and to build up its treasury and this is one of the best means we have to do so. It is to be hoped that each fireman will dispose of his books."

Donald McSherry, chairman of the Parade Committee, said that the amount of the parade prizes will be announced in the very early future.

Chairman Menges advanced the idea that the committee extend its advertising budget by advertising the anniversary program with window cards bumperettes or some such medium over a radius of 50 or 75 miles from Gettysburg. He said that in previous years the advertising program was confined to The Gettysburg Times and radio station WGET. He said the observance program "has reached a point where it should be widely advertised."

Banquet Next Thursday

Menges said that the Air Force Drum and Eagle Corps will be here for the observance but that the Second Army Band would not attend. It will be in Europe at that time.

The annual Firemen's Banquet will be held next Thursday night.

At that time, Menges said, wives of the members will sound out sentiment relative to forming an auxiliary to the department. He said that the department would have to approve the bylaws and constitution if an auxiliary was organized. He emphasized the importance of such a group and that it would be "of great benefit to the company."

House Democrats Defy GOP; Senate Republicans Ready To Kill Governor's Plans

HARRISBURG (AP)—Senate Republicans dusted off pigeonholes today for House-passed Democratic proposal for government reorganization and for renewing 400 million dollars in existing taxes for another two years.

The Democratic-controlled House brushed aside GOP opposition to approve the two plans last night and send them to the Senate.

Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, Republican floor leader, hinted broadly that the plan to give Gov. George M. Leader broad reorganization powers would likely die in the Senate committee.

And almost in the same breath, he forecast that the Republican-dominated Senate would do nothing on the tax program until Leader is ready to submit his budget to the lawmakers.

The House spent all afternoon yesterday debating the government reorganization legislation asked by the governor as an economy move.

Two GOP

Chairman Frederick T. Gelder of the Liquor Control Board and Malcolm B. Petrikin of the state Labor Relations Board also told a newsman they will not resign.

Cohen Issued Orders

Ultimatums through Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen went in addition to Leo G. Knoll of the Workmen's Compensation Board and Louis J. Conley of the securities commission.

Blamed On Governor

Dent also noted that several of the GOP jobholders have served years beyond the expiration date of their terms.

"The former governor had the legal, political and administrative right to reappoint these men," Dent said. "He failed to do it."

Mahany, meanwhile, promised to check the records to see how the Democrats acted on confirmations when Republican Gov. Arthur H. James took over for Democratic Gov. George H. Earle in 1939.

"If the present office holders want to resign, it's up to them," he said. "But we are taking no part in shaking the political plum tree."

Leader's selections for the jobs are Patrick E. Kerwin, Lykens; Donald A. Behney, Lebanon, and John S. Rice, Gettysburg, to the Liquor Board; Dr John L. Dorris, Nanticoke, Workmen's Compensation Board; J. Warren Mickle, Harrisburg, and Frank N. Happ, Pittsburgh, to the Securities Commission, and Michael J. Crosetto, Galeton, to the Labor Relations Board.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Had One Vote Margin

When the smoke had cleared, Democrats passed the bill, 107-78. The constitutional majority needed to pass a bill is 106. There were four Democratic absentees.

In contrast, the tax program passed almost without debate despite open Republican opposition based on the theory that there was no hurry in re-enacting these so-called temporary levies.

The vote on most of the temporary levies was 107-78. But it was a 184-1 vote that saw approval to renew two cents of the five-cent-a-gallong gasoline tax to raise 98 millions in the next two years. Three cents is permanent.

Rep. Charles C Smith, Republican floor leader, argued that the tax program should be held up until the governor submits his budget for the next biennium starting June 1.

Need New Revenue

Leader has estimated that up to a half million dollars in new revenue is necessary to balance the next budget. He has declined to predict what form his tax program will take.

The temporary taxes, in addition to the gasoline levy, include the 5 per cent corporate net income tax (225 millions), 1 per cent real estate transfer tax (31 millions), 6 mills of 14-mill tax on gross receipts of public utilities (11 millions), postponing for another two years the exemption of Pennsylvania manufacturers from 5-mill capital stock tax (28 millions).

In the same package sent to the Senate was a proposal for re-enacting for another two years a law to give farmers a 50 per cent refund on taxes paid on gasoline used in farm machinery at a biennial cost to the state of $800,000.

Headed For Pigeonhole

"As for as I'm concerned that bill will end up in a committee pigeonhole."

"Sweeping Powers"

"We must assume any plan suggested by a governor would be given serious study by the Legislature," he said. "If we do not like the plan we have an easy way of killing the whole thing."

The bill provides for sweeping powers for the governor—but not so sweeping that they could not be blocked by the Legislature.

For example, if the governor thought the state Planning Board should be abolished he would simply draft a plan carrying out the idea and send it to the Legislature.

The House or Senate would have 30 days in which to veto the plan If no action is taken, the board automatically would go out of existence despite its creation under a specific previous law.

Both the House and Senate recessed until next Monday.

is to help the fire company and to build up its treasury and this is one of the best means we have to do so. It is to be hoped that each fireman will dispose of his books."

Donald McSherry, chairman of the Parade Committee, said that the amount of the parade prizes will be announced in the very early future.

Chairman Menges advanced the idea that the committee extend its advertising budget by advertising the anniversary program with window cards bumperettes or some such medium over a radius of 50 or 75 miles from Gettysburg. He said that in previous years the advertising program was confined to The Gettysburg Times and radio station WGET. He said the observance program "has reached a point where it should be widely advertised."

Banquet Next Thursday

Eugene Sickles was directed to secure prices and other information on this question for presentation at the next meeting of the committee.

Menges said that the Air Force Drum and Eagle Corps will be here for the observance but that the Second Army Band would not attend. It will be in Europe at that time.

The annual Firemen's Banquet will be held next Thursday night.

At that time, Menges said, wives of the members will sound out sentiment relative to forming an auxiliary to the department. He said that the department would have to approve the bylaws and constitution if an auxiliary was organized. He emphasized the importance of such a group and that it would be "of great benefit to the company."

House Democrats Defy GOP; Senate Republicans Ready To Kill Governor's Plans

HARRISBURG (AP)—Senate Republicans dusted off pigeonholes today for House-passed Democratic proposal for government reorganization and for renewing 400 million dollars in existing taxes for another two years.

The Democratic-controlled House brushed aside GOP opposition to approve the two plans last night and send them to the Senate.

Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, Republican floor leader, hinted broadly that the plan to give Gov. George M. Leader broad reorganization powers would likely die in the Senate committee.

And almost in the same breath, he forecast that the Republican-dominated Senate would do nothing on the tax program until Leader is ready to submit his budget to the lawmakers.

The House spent all afternoon yesterday debating the government reorganization legislation asked by the governor as an economy move.

Had One Vote Margin

When the smoke had cleared, Democrats passed the bill, 107-78. The constitutional majority needed to pass a bill is 106. There were four Democratic absentees.

In contrast, the tax program passed almost without debate despite open Republican opposition based on the theory that there was no hurry in re-enacting these so-called temporary levies.

The vote on most of the temporary levies was 107-78. But it was a 184-1 vote that saw approval to renew two cents of the five-cent-a-gallong gasoline tax to raise 98 millions in the next two years. Three cents is permanent.

Rep. Charles C Smith, Republican floor leader, argued that the tax program should be held up until the governor submits his budget for the next biennium starting June 1.

Need New Revenue

Leader has estimated that up to a half million dollars in new revenue is necessary to balance the next budget. He has declined to predict what form his tax program will take.

Mahany echoed Smith's position, saying:

"Before anything is done in taxes in the Senate, we must know what the governor's budget is."

The temporary taxes, in addition to the gasoline levy, include the 5 per cent corporate net income tax (225 millions); 1 per cent real estate transfer tax (31 millions), 6 mills of 14-mill tax on gross receipts of public utilities (11 millions), postponing for another two years the exemption of Pennsylvania manufacturers from 5-mill capital stock tax (28 millions).

In the same package sent to the Senate was a proposal for re-enacting for another two years a law to give farmers a 50 per cent refund on taxes paid on gasoline used in farm machinery at a biennial cost to the state of $800,000.

Headed For Pigeonhole

Mahany also adopted Smith's tack in assailing the government reorganization bill as unconstitutional, declaring:

"As for as I'm concerned that bill will end up in a committee pigeonhole."

The 2½ hours of debate on the government reorganization bill saw Smith also attack the bill as "unworkable and against the public interest."

"Sweeping Powers"

"We must assume any plan suggested by a governor would be given serious study by the Legislature," he said. "If we do not like the plan we have an easy way of killing the whole thing."

The bill provides for sweeping powers for the governor—but not so sweeping that they could not be blocked by the Legislature.

For example, if the governor thought the state Planning Board should be abolished he would simply draft a plan carrying out the idea and send it to the Legislature.

The House or Senate would have 30 days in which to veto the plan If no action is taken, the board automatically would go out of existence despite its creation under a specific previous law.

Both the House and Senate recessed until next Monday.

Two GOP

pointments where there is no vacancy.

Chairman Frederick T. Gelder of the Liquor Control Board and Malcolm B. Petrikin of the state Labor Relations Board also told a newsman they will not resign.

Cohen Issued Orders

Ultimatums through Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen went in addition to Leo G. Knoll of the Workmen's Compensation Board and Louis J. Conley of the securities commission.

Blamed On Governor

Dent also noted that several of the GOP jobholders have served years beyond the expiration date of their terms.

"The former governor had the legal, political and administrative right to reappoint these men," Dent said. "He failed to do it."

Mahany, meanwhile, promised to check the records to see how the Democrats acted on confirmations when Republican Gov. Arthur H. James took over for Democratic Gov. George H. Earle in 1939.

"If the present office holders want to resign, it's up to them," he said. "But we are taking no part in shaking the political plum tree."

Leader's selections for the jobs are Patrick E. Kerwin, Lykens; Donald A. Behney, Lebanon, and John S. Rice, Gettysburg, to the Liquor Board; Dr John L. Dorris, Nanticoke, Workmen's Compensation Board; J. Warren Mickle, Harrisburg, and Frank N. Happ, Pittsburgh, to the Securities Commission, and Michael J. Crosetto, Galeton, to the Labor Relations Board.

FORMULA FEEDS
During February
On purchases of ½ ton or more

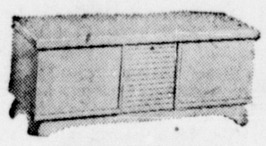

Southern States Cooperative has again taken the lead in helping farmers ease the squeeze between dwindling farm income and continued high costs of producing milk, meat, and eggs. Southern States and Cooperative Service Agencies have joined in arbitrarily slashing prices on formula feeds during February at the rate of $4.00 per ton under current bag-lot prices, on orders of one-half ton or more at one time (one or more feeds may be included in total order). This reduction applies on all feeds except (1) Southern States Drought Emergency Dairy Feeds; (2) Southern States feeds supplied under contract feeding programs; (3) scratch gains; (4) grain goods; and (5) ingredients.

Though prices have been cut sharply, there has been no reduction in the usual high quality of Southern States feeds. They will continue to give you the most for your feed dollar.

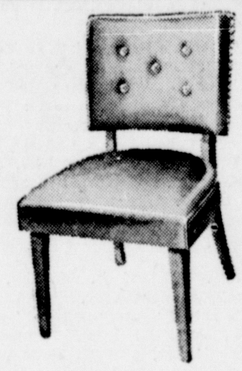

Look What This Means To You

- 20 cents saving on every bag of feed you buy
- $20.00 more profit in raising 1,000 broilers
- About 1 cent more profit in producing eggs (about 25 cents a case)
- $30.00 more profit per month in feeding a herd of 50 dairy cows
- $1.75 more profit for each 200 pounds of weight gain in hogs
- $45.00 more profit in raising 1,000 Beltsville white turkeys
- $125.00 more profit in raising 1,000 Bronze turkeys

RED CHINESE FLUBBED CHANCE TO GET FORMOSA

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Communists, credited with being cunning characters, probably kick themselves for a pair of colossal blunders: their handling of Formosa and Korea. They did it the hard way, and backwards.

For six months in 1950 they evidently could have taken Formosa without American opposition. Instead, they tackled South Korea. They might have had both if they had worked in reverse. They would up with neither.

Five years ago Formosa was wide open to the Red Chinese. They had driven Chiang Kai-shek there from the mainland. And President Truman said on Jan. 5, 1950, the United States would not defend Chiang.

Chiang In Bad Shape

Chiang was in poor shape to defend himself. American diplomats predicted the fall of the island. The way seemed clear. Why then didn't the Chinese Communists cross the 100 miles of water separating Formosa from the mainland?

Since they had just taken over the mainland, they may have thought they had some homework to do first. Perhaps they felt they lacked enough equipment for an invasion of Formosa. Or perhaps they felt they could take their time.

The United States in the first half of 1950 was militarily weak, cutting its armed forces even more, and showing no signs or intentions of getting stronger or into a fight for Formosa. The Reds let six months pass.

Truman's Surprise

Then the North Korean Communists invaded South Korea in June 1950. Truman, no doubt to the surprise of the Reds, put the United States into the war and threw the 7th Fleet into defense of Formosa. It has been there since.

In the intervening five years the American mood changed. The United States decided to keep Formosa from the Communists. The defense of Formosa now is stronger than any time since World War II. The Reds had missed their main chance.

If they had taken Formosa before grabbing for Korea, they might have been solidly in the island now. And, because of their strategic location on Formosa, the United States might not have in anyway.

Why did the Red Chinese and the Russians let the Korean Communists try to take South Korea before Formosa was invaded? Probably because at the moment it looked like the softer touch.

STAPLES HIGHER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The price of rayon carpet staples made by the American Viscose Corp. is going up 2 to 3 cents per pound on March 1.

Vice President Harry L. Dalton said yesterday the increase "is being made partially to offset expenses involved in the expanded promotion of the tufton quality plan inaugurated last fall and partially because of increased manufacturing costs."

FREEDOM TWP. BANK BALANCE DROPS IN '54

Freedom Twp. finished 1954 operations "in the red," according to its year-end report, but the bank balance covers the deficit easily. The report was filed Monday with the clerk of courts.

Freedom's revenue income for 1954 totaled $5,093.36, while the expenditures added up to $5,416.08. The bank balance shrank during the year from $1,102.93 to $780.21. There were no debs or unpaid bills listed.

Of the $5,093.36 income, $1,083.54 came from general taxes. The five-mill real estate tax yielded $944.43 in current payments and $74.13 in back payments. The occupations tax brought in $54.98 in current levies and $10.50 in prior year payments. The former tax and $12.84 in the former tax and $12.84 in the later, as of January 1.

The other sources of income were: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, $3,141.44; Adams County, $697.88; liquor licenses and taxes, $150, and fines, $20.

Among the expenses, general government cost $444.61 in the township and $52.73 went for insurance. The maintenance of the township's 12 miles of earth roads and one mile of improved highway cost $4,779.38.

The supervisors for Freedom are Garland S. Lefler, chairman, and Daniel Shorb, both of Fairfield R. 2. The secretary-treasurer is William M. Scott, Gettysburg R. 2. The auditors are James W. Bigham and Clarence J. Waybright, both of Gettysburg R. 2.

Milk usually is whiter in winter than in summer because cows do not have growing plants to eat from which coloring matter is transmitted to the milk.

BANK MERGERS CHANGE SCENE AMONG GIANTS

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Bank mergers are scrambling he lineup of the 18 in the nation that have deposits in excess of one billion dollars.

And by the end of this year mergers now being discussed among the top 18 will lower the total, unless weddings of other banks just under the billion-dollar class produce newcomers to the list.

Merger talk is uppermost in the minds of bank stockholders at most of the annual meetings. Competition is the reason in most cases.

Taking On Branches

The money in banking is now in the neighborhoods, the big banks in the financial districts have come to believe. So old-style "Wall Street type" banks are acquiring branches by merging with others that already have large branch systems scattered through the cities or suburbs.

That is the reason given by Chase National Bank of New York, No. 3 in the list of the 18 largest, in asking stockholders to approve a merger with the Bank of the Manhattan Co., No. 15 of the giants. After the wedding, Chase Manhattan will move into No. 2 spot, replacing National City Bank of New York, unless that bank makes some such move of its own.

San Francisco's Bank of America will retain its top position — it had more than eight billion dollars in deposits at the end of 1954 — partly because California law permits it to have branches throughout the state, while New York law won't let Gotham banks have branches beyond New York's city limits.

Neighborhood branches reach their new importance because: (1) depositors won't bother with city traffic to bank at downtown institutions; (2) the shift in income levels has made new and less concentrated groups of persons using banks; (3) growth of use of credit for consumer purchasing has opened a lucrative and highly competitive field for commercial banks as well as finance companies; (4) banks look for a higher volume of loans this year to business, big and small, and many business firms now patronize the branches instead of doing their borrowing in Wall Street or Montgomery Street.

New Jersey Plant Closed By Strike

SAYREVILLE, N.J. (AP)—Production was at a standstill today at the National Lead Co.'s titanium division here as CIO workers staged a strike in a dispute over a new contract.

The walkout began shortly after last midnight. Members of Local 366, CIO United Gas Coke and Chemical Workers, voted 547-375 last night against a proposed new contract which had been worked out by union and company representatives the previous day. Some 1,200 employes are involved in the strike.

A company spokesman said the rejected agreement provided for an 8-cent hourly wage boost, which would bring the average pay rate to $2.26. Union spokesmen were not available for comment.

ARREST 7 FOR THEFTS

SHENANDOAH, Pa. (AP) — Seven young men are under arrest today on charges of committing a number of robberies in this hard coal area the past year.

State and local police identified the men as Leon J. Kostowsku, 22, and John B. Openal, 19, of Philadelphia, and five juveniles whose names were not disclosed.

Art Lovers Hail Paintings By Boy

PARIS (AP)—Crowds of art lovers are milling about a gallery on Paris' fashionable Rue Faubourg St.Honore to view with "ohs" and "ahs" the oils of a completely unheard-of painter who is 10 years old.

Thierry Vaubourgoin is the youngest artist to have a one-man show within the memory of gallery goers here. There are 45 of his paintings in the Alex Cazelles Gallery.

Most of the paintings are still life. The gallery manager thinks a painting of a dish of pears, soft gold against a subdued background, and a plate of silvery, blood-stained fish are among Thierry's best works. He did them in his "early period" — in 1952.

PRINCESS ON WAY TO TRINIDAD

MONTEGO BAY, Jamaica (AP)—Princess Margaret Tuesday arrived at Montego Bay, port town in northwest Jamaica, en route to Trinidad on her Caribbean tour. Her plane touched down at 7:37 a.m. She is due in Port of Spain, Trinidad, at 3 p.m.

Trinidad's Gov. Sir Hubert Rance said the island is displaying "tremendous enthusiasm" for the royal visit. Port of Spain was bedecked with thousands of streamers, banners and flags.

Decorations Torn Down

But flags and bunting decorating Piarco Airport were mysteriously torn down Sunday night, despite a 24-hour police guard. Authorities declined comment on the incident Monday as workers restored the decorations.

The Canopus made the transatlantic hop—Margaret's first flight across that ocean—in 13 hours 10 minutes. Shifting weather conditions forced it to overfly fogbound Gander, Nfld., and Goose Bay, Labrador, two other possible refueling points.

Firemen Called To Fire In Whistle

STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Volunteer firemen dashed to the fire whistle in this Pocono Mountain community yesterday. It was on fire.

The blaze was extinguished in 10 minutes.

Volunteer fire chief Millard Marsh, a mailman in everday life, had an explanation. He had installed an electric heater in the whistlebox so the whistle wouldn't freeze during a cold spell. He attributed the blaze to a defective thermostat.

PENNSY SOLONS FAVOR DEEPER RIVER CHANNEL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pennsylvania's Republican members of Congress have adopted a resolution favoring an appropriation to start work on deepening the Delaware River Channel without any private industry contributions.

Reps. King of Bucks County, Scott of Philadelphia and Fulton of Pittsburgh sponsored the resolution which the Pennsylvania Congress members went on record yesterday as favoring unanimously.

The resolution did not set any money goal the group should work toward obtaining, but merely said the amount should be sufficient to get the work started without he necessity of local contributions.

Plans have been made for deepening the Delaware River to 40 feet between Philadelphia and Trenton, N.J. President Eisenhower has said he feels local interests should help foot the estimated 91 million dollar bill for the work.

Ask $25 Million

A bil to appropriate 25 milion to start the project without local contributions has been introduced in Congress by Reps. Green and Byrne, Pennsylvania Democrats. Pennsylvania's two U.S. Senators—Republicans Edward Martin and James H. Duff—indicated they both favor financing the work under terms of the authorization law passed last year with the federal government paying the entire cost.

A meeting is scheduled tomorrow to be attended by representatives of the three states that would most benefit from the project — Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. All three states have joined in a bipartisan drive to obtain an appropriation for the work without any local financial help.

Art Lovers Hail Paintings By Boy

PARIS (AP)—Crowds of art lovers are milling about a gallery on Paris' fashionable Rue Faubourg St.Honore to view with "ohs" and "ahs" the oils of a completely unheard-of painter who is 10 years old.

Thierry Vaubourgoin is the youngest artist to have a one-man show within the memory of gallery goers here. There are 45 of his paintings in the Alex Cazelles Gallery.

Most of the paintings are still life. The gallery manager thinks a painting of a dish of pears, soft gold against a subdued background, and a plate of slivery, blood-stained fish are among Thierry's best works. He did them in his "early period" — in 1952.

PRINCESS ON WAY TO TRINIDAD

MONTEGO BAY, Jamaica (AP)—Princess Margaret Tuesday arrived at Montego Bay, port town in northwest Jamaica, en route to Trinidad on her Caribbean tour. Her plane touched down at 7:37 a.m. She is due in Port of Spain, Trinidad, at 3 p.m.

Trinidad's Gov. Sir Hubert Rance said the island is displaying "tremendous enthusiasm" for the royal visit. Port of Spain was bedecked with thousands of streamers, banners and flags.

Decorations Torn Down

But flags and bunting decorating Piarco Airport were mysteriously torn down Sunday night, despite a 24-hour police guard. Authorities declined comment on the incident Monday as workers restored the decorations.

The Canopus made the transatlantic hop—Margaret's first flight across that ocean—in 13 hours 10 minutes. Shifting weather conditions forced it to overfly fogbound Gander, Nfld., and Goose Bay, Labrador, two other possible refueling points.

Firemen Called To Fire In Whistle

The blaze was extinguished in 10 minutes.

Volunteer fire chief Millard Marsh, a mailman in everday life, had an explanation. He had installed an electric heater in the whistlebox so the whistle wouldn't freeze during a cold spell. He attributed the blaze to a defective thermostat.

PENNSY SOLONS FAVOR DEEPER RIVER CHANNEL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pennsylvania's Republican members of Congress have adopted a resolution favoring an appropriation to start work on deepening the Delaware River Channel without any private industry contributions.

Reps. King of Bucks County, Scott of Philadelphia and Fulton of Pittsburgh sponsored the resolution which the Pennsylvania Congress members went on record yesterday as favoring unanimously.

The resolution did not set any money goal the group should work toward obtaining, but merely said the amount should be sufficient to get the work started without he necessity of local contributions.

Plans have been made for deepening the Delaware River to 40 feet between Philadelphia and Trenton, N.J. President Eisenhower has said he feels local interests should help foot the estimated 91 million dollar bill for the work.

Ask $25 Million

A bil to appropriate 25 milion to start the project without local contributions has been introduced in Congress by Reps. Green and Byrne, Pennsylvania Democrats. Pennsylvania's two U.S. Senators—Republicans Edward Martin and James H. Duff—indicated they both favor financing the work under terms of the authorization law passed last year with the federal government paying the entire cost.

A meeting is scheduled tomorrow to be attended by representatives of the three states that would most benefit from the project — Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware. All three states have joined in a bipartisan drive to obtain an appropriation for the work without any local financial help.

SEEK CHANGE IN LAW ON PASSING SCHOOL BUSES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Proposed legislation in the House would permit motorists to continue at reduced speed past a school bus halted at a school on the same side of the highway.

A bill offered on Monday by three Allegheny County representatives also would revise the law requiring drivers to come to a complete halt for school buses while on a dual highway or road with multiple roadways separated by safety islands.

The proposed revision of safety regulations for school children would allow drivers to pass the school bus loading or discharging directly from or to a school along the road. However, motorists would have to slow down to 10 miles an hour or less.

On highways with divided lanes drivers in a different lane would be allowed the same speed to pass a bus halted to receive or discharge students.

Other Measures

Other bills introduced in the House would:

Make persons leaving their job because of marital difficulties eligible for unemployment compensation benefits—Rep. John J. Vaughan (R-Allegheny).

Give landowners in first and second class townships and boroughs the right to appeal to the courts an adverse decision on zoning regulations—Rep. Edwin E. Lippincott (R-Delaware).

Prohibit artificial coloring of any potatoes or yams—Rep. H. J. Maxwell (D-Westmoreland).

Require school buildings to have adequate lighting and a safe water supply—Rep. Leroy A. Weidner (R-Berks).

Authorize the transfer of retail liquor or dispenser's licenses from hotels or restaurants to a club or veterans organization — Reps. Charles D. Stone (D-Beaver) and William B. Smith (D-Beaver).

Public Defender

Create the office of public defender in each county to aid persons without money to employ a lawyer—Reps. Robert K. Hamilton (D-Beaver), Stone and Smith.

Require that meat packaged in transparent material be displayed so that all parts can be seen—Reps. James E Lovett (D-Westmoreland) and Charles J. Mills (D-Westmoreland).

Give the entire city or borough council power to appoint members of a parking authority rather than the mayor or council president alone—Rep. Clarence M. Lawyer Jr. (D-York).

Have an applicant's blood type and RH factor listed on the motor vehicle operator's license — Reps. Jenkins, Andrew C. Thomas (D-Allegheny), Murray.

Car Tags Every Three Years

Issue motor vehicle registration plates every three years instead of annually—Reps. Murray, Jenkins and Smith.

Authorize borough officials to convert a burial grounds into a municipal park without removal of the dead—Reps. Smith and Stone.

Permit an applicant for a hotel liquor license to delay alterations, improvements or physical building changes until receiving approval of his application—Rep. Vaughan.

Ban the sale of all soft drinks in schools during school hours—Rep. Maxwell.

Raise the fees for the coroner of Allegheny County from one to three dollars for various services—Rep. Jules Filo (D-Allegheny).

Outlaw increases in public utility rates without public hearings in each case—Reps J. P. Moran (D-Allegheny) and Murray

SUSPENSION OF DRIVER LICENSE FOR SPEEDING MAY BE CHANGED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's stiff penalty of suspension of a driver's license for a first speeding offense would be lifted under a new bill introduced in the Senate.

The measure would limit the first offense to a fine, with a 30 to 90-day suspension meted out for a second offense. A third conviction would mean a six-month suspension and a fourth revocation of the motorist's license.

As introduced by Sens. William J. Lane (D-Washington) and Elmer J. Holland (D - Allegheny), the measure would permit application for a new license one year after revocation.

Another motor vehicle change, submitted with bi-partisan sponsorship would require installation of a speed governor on the vehicle of any driver permitted to operated under a restricted license.

Restricted License

The sponsors are Sens. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, and Albert R. Pechan (R-Armstrong).

Other new Senate bills would:

Appropriate $150,000 to the Welfare Department for 40 competitive scholarships to state-aided medical colleges with the provision that winners serve four years in state medical institutions—Sen. Joseph J. Yosko (D-Northampton).

Require registration of all lobbyists seeking to influence state legislation—Sens. Elmer Holland (D-Allegheny and Lane.

Increase Penalties

Increase penalties for persons convicted of selling or dispensing drugs from $2,000 fine and two to five years imprisonment to $5,000 and five to 10 years for a first offense; from $5,000 and five to 10 years to $10,000 and 10 to 20 years for a second offense, and from $7,500 and 10 to 30 years for a third offense to $15,000 and life imprisonment—Sen. Peter J. Camiel (D-Phila).

Provide for state certification of secretaries for school boards and other public education officials—Sen. Frank Kopriver Jr. (R-Allegheny).

Increase pilotage rates for vessels in the Port of Philadelphia from $2 to $2.50 per half foot for ships drawing 12 feet of water or less and from $2 50 to $3 per half foot for ships drawing over 12 feet —Sens. G. Robert Watkins (R-Delaware) and Anthony J. Di Silvestro (D-Phila).

Probe Trust Funds

Appropriate $200,000 to the State Insurance Department to provide for registration and examination of employe welfare trust funds—Sens. George N. Wade (R-Cumberland) and Edward J. Kessler (R-Lancaster).

Authorize the licensing by municipalities of veterans, charitable, religious, fraternal and other organizations of bingo and other games of chance—Sen. John J. Haluska (D-Cambria).

Permit any person licensed to practice any branch of the healing arts licensed by the commonwealth including osteopaths, chiropodists, chiropractors as well as medical doctors to practice in state-aided hospitals—Sen. Haluska.

Permit the use of books and other writings by medical men as evidence in court cases—Sen. Haluska.

NEW LEADS IN RUBINSTEIN MURDER CASE

NEW YORK (AP)—Police officials say new information has been turned up in the Serge Rubinstein murder case, New York's biggest murder mystery in years, but they are keeping the facts to themselves.

A four-hour inspection at the home of the slain millionaire playboy and draft dodger was made yesterday by the two men in charge of the investigation, Asst. Dist. Atty. Alexander Herman and Dep. Chief Inspector Edward T. Feeley.

"Woman In Brown" Out

After leaving the luxurious house on 5th Avenue, they were asked if anything new had been learned.

"Yes," answered Herman. He declined to elaborate.

Herman said he and Feeley had inspected once again the third-floor bedroom where the 46-year-old Rubenstein was found gagged, bound and strangled last Thursday.

However, he added, most of the time was spent questioning Rubinstein's elderly mother and aunt and the household servants—a butler, who discovered the body; a cook, parlor maid, personal maid of Rubinstein's mother and a secretary.

As a result of information gleaned, Herman said, "new and more witnesses are being sought." He said detectives had been sent out of the city but declined to say where.

Herman said the day's questioning had discounted earlier reports about a mysterious "woman in brown" roaming about the house on the morning of the murder.

FORMULA FEEDS
During February
On purchases of ½ ton or more

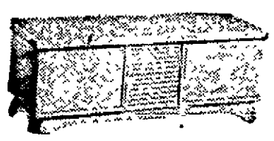

Southern States Cooperative has again taken the lead in helping farmers ease the squeeze between dwindling farm income and continued high costs of producing milk, meat, and eggs. Southern States and Cooperative Service Agencies have joined in arbitrarily slashing prices on formula feeds during February at the rate of $4.00 per ton under current bag-lot prices, on orders of one-half ton or more at one time (one or more feeds may be included in total order). This reduction applies on all feeds except (1) Southern States Drought Emergency Dairy Feeds; (2) Southern States feeds supplied under contract feeding programs; (3) scratch gains; (4) grain goods; and (5) ingredients.

Though prices have been cut sharply, there has been no reduction in the usual high quality of Southern States feeds. They will continue to give you the most for your feed dollar.

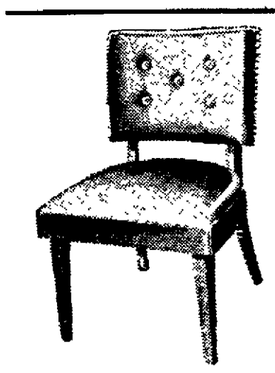

Look What This Means To You

- 20 cents saving on every bag of feed you buy
- $20.00 more profit in raising 1,000 broilers
- About 1 cent more profit in producing eggs (about 25 cents a case)
- $30.00 more profit per month in feeding a herd of 50 dairy cows
- $1.75 more profit for each 200 pounds of weight gain in hogs
- $45.00 more profit in raising 1,000 Beltsville white turkeys
- $125.00 more profit in raising 1,000 Bronze turkeys
